ROSENHEIM FOUND GUILTY AND GIVEN 2-YEAR SENTENCE

Former City Weight Clerk Convicted by Jury of Falsifying Weight of Coal Deliveries.

VERDICT RETURNED AFTER ONE HOUR

He Was Charged With Conspiracy to Obtain Money Under False Pretenses; New Trial to Be Sought.

A verdict of guilty, fixing punishment at two years in the penitentiary, was returned at 12:30 p. m. today in the case of Milton R. Rosenheim, former weight clerk in the City Water Department, charged with conspiracy to obtain money by false pretenses in falsifying the weight of coal deliveries to the city. The jury deliberated for one hour.

Immediately after the reading of the verdict, Rosenheim's counsel informed Circuit Judge Miller that a motion for a new trial would be filed. Rosenheim's bond was fixed at $2500, and Edward J. McNicholas, 2112 Victor street, announced he would sign it.

The brief taken by the jury to reach a decision was a surprise to lawyers who had followed the case and who had expressed the opinion that because the case was complicated the jury would consume much time in making up their minds. Rosenheim made no comment concerning the verdict.

No Evidence for Defense.

The State announced, when court convened at 9 a. m., that it would rest its case, following a session last night during which Rosenheim's confession was introduced. The defense presented no evidence, but filed a number of written demurrers to the State's case, all of which were overruled.

The chief demurrer asked for abatement of the defendant on the ground that the State had not made a case of obtaining money under false pretenses in so far as Rosenheim was personally concerned. This point had been covered in an exhaustive argument of counsel yesterday, when the defense contended that if any money was thus obtained it was by the St. Clair Coal and Mining Co., the coal shipments of which are involved. The Court ruled that the charge was one of conspiracy, in which Rosenheim could have been involved.

Court's Instructions to Jury.

The Court's instructions to the jury were that all parties who were involved would be equally guilty, if guilt was shown, and that if the jury finds Rosenheim guilty of the charge in the indictment of getting $222 in a period of about a month, three years ago, a verdict must be returned sentencing him for a term of two to five years in the penitentiary.

The instructions did not confine the jury to a consideration of money obtained in the period specified in the indictment, nor in the amount specified, but would permit of a verdict of guilty if it was found that Rosenheim had fraudulently obtained $20 or more. The period named in the indictment was Dec. 22, 1918, to Jan. 10, 1919.

Suit Against Coal Company.

The city has sued to recover from the St. Clair Coal & Mining Co. $2000, alleging that amount was obtained by the company through false weights from the time the company entered into a contract with the city in September, 1917, to Oct. 20, 1921, when the alleged conspiracy was discovered.

Others yet to be tried on the same charge are Frederick W. Kleine, president of the St. Clair Coal and Mining Co., and his son, Edwin F. Kleine, treasurer of the company, whose cases have been set for May 15. They were jointly indicted with Rosenheim, but the three defendants took a severance and the State elected to try Rosenheim first. John M. Brichler of Belleville, former secretary of the coal company, also was charged with the same offense, but the indictment against him was nolle prossed and he was used as a State's witness.

Rosenheim's Confession Made Last October Read to Jury.

At last night's session Rosenheim's confession was read to the jury. It was made in the office of the City Counselor in the presence of witnesses Oct. 20, 1921, following his arrest. In the absence of the jury he repudiated the document on the ground that it had been obtained under duress and by promise of immunity. This was denied by five outcurses, and Judge Miller ruled that the confession was voluntary.

It made that confession after De-

VICTOR MILLER ILL AT HIS HOME FROM OVERWORK

Head of Police Commissioners Ordered by Physicians to Rest for Several Weeks—Two Nurses in Attendance.

Victor J. Miller, president of the Board of Police Commissioners, is ill at his home, 6100 Pershing avenue, of a breakdown due to physical exhaustion. He is under the care of two physicians, who have ordered him to bed for several weeks of complete rest and quiet, and who have two nurses to see that their orders are carried out.

Dr. Harry M. Moore, chief surgeon of the Police Department, today said there was nothing in Miller's condition in the nature of a nervous breakdown, but that he was suffering from physical collapse. His condition, the doctor added, is serious but not critical.

Miller returned Monday from a week's business trip to Chicago and Des Moines, Ia. He went to his office at 9 a. m., but at 10:30 went home, and called Dr. R. A. Woolsey, chief surgeon at the Frisco Hospital. Dr. Woolsey ordered him to bed and Dr. Moore was called in consultation. They directed that Miller should remain in bed for several weeks.

Doctor Cites Hard Work.

"His condition," Dr. Moore said, "is due entirely to his hard work in the Police Department. There is no human being who could stand up under the physical strain to which Miller has subjected himself. It has been the customary thing for him to get only three or four hours of sleep a night. He has missed many meals. In other words, he has not in any degree guarded his health. Man can't live that way."

"Miller has been accustomed to go

TRUCK DRIVER, HURT AT GRADE CROSSING, DIES

Employe of Grocer Firm Injured by Train at Unprotected Crossing Near Delmar Station

Aubrey Koelling, 26 years old, of 6545 Marquette avenue, died at the city hospital at 11:30 a. m. today of injuries suffered three hours earlier when an automobile truck he was driving was struck by Wabash passenger train No. 14, at Berglar's Crossing, just north of the Delmar boulevard grade crossing of the railroad.

The crossing, which is used considerably by drivers of trucks going in and out of the Wabash yards to get coal and supplies from cars sidetracked just west of the main line, is unprotected. There are no gates nor is there a crossing watchman.

Witnesses told the police that Koelling apparently saw the train approaching, as a view of the tracks in both directions can be had for several blocks. Koelling stopped the truck at the edge of the tracks and then started again, apparently in an effort to beat the train, police were informed. The train, which was inbound and was slowing down for Delmar station, hit the truck as it reached the middle of the tracks, demolishing it. The train ran along some distance before brought to a stop.

Koelling suffered a fractured skull and internal injuries. He was hurled into the air from the seat of the truck and struck the ground several feet away. The truck being longed to J. H. Biedick, grocer, 6239 Scanlan avenue. Koelling had gone to the yards to get a truck load of coal.

SOURCE OF SOME 'GENUINE BOOZE' IS FOUND BY POLICE

Discovery Incident to Series of Raids in Row of Dwellings at 815 to 821 Carr Street by City Detectives.

OLD-TIME BRANDS ON SOME BOTTLES

Stamps Apparently Removed From Pre-Prohibition Containers, Others Pronounced Counterfeits.

The source of some of the "genuine pre-prohibition whiskey," bearing labels and revenue stamps, which were found by police in a row of dwellings at 815 to 821 Carr street, was discovered by city detectives last evening.

In a raid at 821 1/2 Carr street, the detectives found 27 genuine revenue stamps, apparently removed from old whiskey bottles; 166 apparent counterfeit revenue stamps; 500 printed labels with the name "Bedford Special, John Manning Distilling Co."; 200 labels with the name "Grand-Dad Brand"; and 48 prints of labeled and stamped "Bedford Special."

This discovery was an incident of a series of raids in the row of dwellings, 815-821 Carr street. The detectives were informed that the row was a center of bootlegging activities. No search warrant was obtained.

Still Also Found.

The place where the labels and stamps were found was the dwelling of J. Belboe, and he said, after the raid, that he had purchased it. He was arrested on the finding of the labels and stamps.

In the rear of number 815, a still and eight barrels of mash were found, besides 50 empty barrels which had contained mash.

On the second floor of number 819, a gas burner was found which appeared to fit into the bottom of the still found at 815.

At 821 1/2, Samuel Somani was arrested after he had thrown a gallon jug, smelling of moonshine, out of the window, breaking it.

Police in Quelling Fight, Find Quantity of Liquor.

A charge of violating the Volstead law was placed against William Peel of 3113 1/2 Olive street last night, after Paul McDonald and his wife, with whom Peel boarded, had told the police that Peel was a liquor peddler. The police found four one-gallon jugs and two quart bottles of whiskey in a closet which they say Peel professed to use for storing carpenter tools.

The bootlegging charge against Peel developed after he and the McDonalds were arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace, in a fight in which Peel was cut and scratched in disfiguring fashion. He said he intervened in a quarrel between husband and wife, with the usual result. Peel and the McDonalds were taken to the city hospital, where all were found to be suffering from alcoholism.

Henry Oldani was arrested in his "cock drink" saloon at 2100 Olive street, when a policeman found a half-pint bottle, apparently containing whiskey, in his pocket as he stood behind the bar.

David Pellegrini, 25, of 6214 Clemens avenue, was arrested in the neighborhood of 5441 Nina place, and was held on a charge of "possession," under the State law, when a bottle of whiskey was found in his pocket.

The police today are trying to get a State or Federal warrant charging transporting of liquor against Abe Rovin, 37 years old, a shoemaker, of 1410 Arlington avenue, who was arrested at King's highway and Cabanne avenue last night when a policeman found in his automobile three jars of wine, which Rovin said he was taking home for religious use, in connection with ceremonies of the Jewish Feast of the Passover. Two broken jars were in the automobile also. Rovin said he had just got the wine from the rabbi of the Synagogue Sherrith Sfard, Fifteenth and Wash streets.

VIVID REMINDER OF HIS SABRE-TOOTH PAST FOR 'THE TIGER'

Clemenceau Learns Sculptor Once Made Head of Him on a Spear.

By the Associated Press.

BIARRITZ, April 13.—Former Premier Clemenceau, after the unveiling of the statue of King Edward VII of England here the other day, requested to be introduced to the sculptor.

"You have real talent," the Tiger said. "Is any of your work in the public museums?"

"No," replied the artist, "but that is a big matter by me in the collection at La Sante prison. It is the only museum my country ever opened for me. Here is a photograph of the work in question."

Clemenceau, then the sculptor, laughed aloud, slapped the sculptor on the shoulder, and said: "I suppose we were a pair of fools then."

The photograph represented a head of Clemenceau sticking on a spear.

Maximilien Real Del Sarte, the sculptor, was a militant royalist in his youth. He had become involved in some public manifestation and Clemenceau, then Minister of the Interior, had sent him to La Sante for six months.

SIR ROSS SMITH KILLED IN PRACTICE FOR WORLD FLIGHT

Australian Aviator and His Engineer Lose Lives When Plane Falls at Brooklands, England.

FATAL SPIN COMES AT 3000-FOOT ALTITUDE

Sir Ross, With Brother, Sir Keith, Had Planned to Start Around the Earth Late This Month.

By the Associated Press.

LONDON, April 13.—Sir Ross Smith, the Australian aviator, who, with his brother, Sir Keith, had planned to start from Croydon April 25 on a flight around the world, was killed when his airplane fell in a practice flight at Brooklands today.

Lieut. Bennett, an engineer, who was planning to accompany Sir Ross and his brother on their around-the-world flight, also was killed.

The machine which crashed was the one the Smiths intended to use in their flight. Capt. Conkerill of the Vickers company had previously flown it for a half hour, then handed it over to Capt. Smith.

As the machine was approaching the airfield to land it got into a spin and the crash followed.

The accident occurred 15 minutes after Capt. Smith and Lieut. Bennett began their flight. Sir Keith Smith had intended to make the trial flight with them but he arrived at the airfield too late.

The machine had climbed gracefully to a height of more than 3000 feet when suddenly her nose dipped and she went into a spin, which became faster and faster until the machine hit the earth with such terrific impact that the plane was splintered.

Sir Ross was killed instantly and Lieut. Bennett died a few minutes after the crash.

Capt. Smith and Brother Flew From England to Australia.

Capt. Smith sprang into prominence in aviation in 1919, when, accompanied by his brother, Sir Keith, he made a flight from England to Australia, 11,000 miles, winning a prize of £10,000 (normally $50,000) from the Australian Government

RUSSIA REFUSES TO ACCEPT CHANGE IN GOVERNMENT

Joffe Says Answer to Allied Demand Is No; That Interference Will Not Be Considered.

PLAN FOR UNIVERSAL DISARMAMENT

Delegation Open to Negotiation on Question of Czarist Debts, He Says, if France Changes Policy.

By SAMUEL SPEWACK, Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

GENOA, April 13.—Russia's answer to the allied demands as embodied in the report of the experts was told me yesterday by Adolf Joffe, chief soviet financial adviser, in an exclusive interview.

The reply to the crucial part of the allied demand—revision of the Russian judicial machinery—is an emphatic no. The significance of this statement is accentuated by M. Joffe's usual cautiousness.

The substance of his statement is that Russia will insist on two main points—absolute economic and political sovereignty and universal disarmament as an economic necessity. In other words, the soviet says: "Financial guarantees?—yes; assurances of the dawn of peaceful relations?—yes; but interference in the soviet policy as outlined by its leaders?—no."

On the question of debts Russia is more amenable. As told me, she is willing to negotiate for damages inflicted by czarist expeditions backed by the allies.

Without committing himself to a definite policy, M. Joffe told me there was a basis for discussion if France did not cling to her obstreperous policy.

I found M. Joffe in the royal palace after the conference of the allied experts who examined the allied report.

"I fear the London experts do not understand Russia," he said, with a slight smile. "Russia will not permit any encroachment on her sovereignty. Russia will not permit capitalist exploitation."

"While wishing with all her heart to use the conference for the establishment of peace and trade relations, to bow to the collective decision on all other problems, it is impossible for Russia to consent to interference in her internal policy by other nations."

"We have financial guarantees to offer all nations—such guarantees as will satisfy reasonable demands. But we cannot consent to exploitation and intervention of any kind."

Stand for Disarmament. Discussing the limitation of land armaments proposed by George Chicherin, head of the soviet delegation, M. Joffe shrewdly pointed to the experts' report.

"They say all nations should strive toward a budget without disarmament," he explained. "But we know we cannot have a budget without a deficit unless we disarm our present large army. That must be evident to France. Of course we cannot disarm unless other nations do likewise. But universal disarmament is impossible for the establishment of real peace."

Turning to the subject of Russian debts, I asked M. Joffe the attitude of the delegation. He would not commit himself to a definite policy—although it has been authoritatively stated a moratorium will be suggested—but he did say:

"That is a problem which can be negotiated. One cannot give figures. The point is, we have counter-claims for allied interventions. We must compare notes; then we can reach an agreement."

Asked what effect the bickerings with France might have upon the conference, M. Joffe replied: "We, for our part, are willing to be reasonable, but preserve our integrity. The success of the conference depends upon understanding this point of view. We ask nothing unreasonable; we do not want to be asked anything unreasonable."

ITALIAN AMBASSADOR COMING

Vittorio Rolando Ricci, Italian Ambassador to the United States, will arrive in St. Louis from Washington at 3:30 p. m. today, and will remain here until tomorrow afternoon, awaiting the departure of the train to St. Louis. He and his family and some friends are on their way to California.

The party will be met at Union Station by Robert de Villot, the Italian Consul, and about 50 Italians. As the visit is unofficial, no plans have been made for the entertainment of the visitors. The wishes of the Ambassador in regard to this will be ascertained on his arrival.

Peoria Pastor Disappears. Special to the Post-Dispatch. PEORIA, Ill., April 13.—The Rev. W. J. Leach, pastor of the Averyville M. E. Church, disappeared last night after leading his congregation at a prayer meeting. Searching parties have started in an effort to find him.

FRENCH INSIST THAT RUSSIA MUST TEAR OFF THE LAST SHREDS OF ITS BOLSHEVISM

Soviet Also Must Agree to Renounce Class War or Parisian Delegation Will Not Permit Conference to Continue.

By ARNO BOSCH FLEUROT, Staff Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch and New York World.

GENOA, April 13.—The report of the allied experts on Russia is the first work to come before the conference, and it is practically certain the drastic demands it makes upon the soviet will be rejected.

All four commissions into which the work of the conference has been divided have been given a part of the report to start work on.

George Chicherin has the report, and as the Russian representative in Commission No. 1 he must say for the soviet whether he is willing to continue the discussion on this basis. President Rakovsky of the Ukraine, who is on the financial commission, has the same problem to face.

The report is practically an analysis of what must be done in Russia to establish a democratic, capitalist government. The soviet must either formally renounce, across the green cloth, their class war against the last shreds of bolshevism from the government or the French will not let the conference continue.

French Are Uncompromising. The French delegation is pressing this point with steady precision and intends to get the soviet delegation on the spot over the experts' report. They are cool, uncompromising, and will only do business with Russia if the report is accepted as the basis for discussion.

The British already have acted as intermediaries between the French and Russians three times. They say now the danger has passed on the first day, although they admit the situation is still critical.

ROSENHEIM FOUND GUILTY AND IS GIVEN TWO-YEAR SENTENCE

Keely had assured me that everything would turn out all right if I made a clean breast of the matter," Rosenheim testified. "He told me that the city was after the higher-ups in the conspiracy and advised me to tell all to save myself. I was nervous. The thought of my mother worried me. I wept. I was willing to confess to anything just to get home to my mother."

In response to questions by Judge Miller, Rosenheim stated that he had been graduated from a law school, but insisted that when he made the confession he was under the impression that he was to be released when he signed the document.

Former Secretary Tells of Payment. Details of the payment of $100,000 to Rosenheim by the St. Clair Coal and Mining Co., which had a contract for supplying coal to the city, were related by Brichler and Ray, who were present at the trial.

"I became acquainted with Rosenheim in 1918, when he came to the office of the coal company in the Central National Bank Building to collect money," said Brichler. "I had heard of him before that, when Edw. Klein, who was shortly after the company obtained the contract with the city in September, 1917, told me that he had fixed things at the water works."

"That had Klein have reference to?" Brichler was asked.

Scales Didn't Harmonize. "We had observed that the railroad scales at East St. Louis and the city scales at the Bissell's Point water pumping station did not harmonize," the witness replied. "We paid for the coal according to the weight registered by the railroad scales and the city paid us according to the city scales. The city scales weighed lighter than the railroad scales."

"Edw. Klein told me that he had agreed to pay Rosenheim $25 a month and $1 a ton for all tonnage shipped to the city scales in excess of that registered by the railroad scales. The result was that the city paid the coal company for a lot of coal that the city did not receive."

Under cross-examination Brichler admitted that he had tried to sell his holdings in the company, six shares of stock of a par value of $100 a share, to Frederick W. Klein for $45,000. He finally came down to $15,000, he said, but he could not remember having said that Klein did not buy him out at his price. He would send Klein to the penitentiary. He also denied having started the criminal prosecution to collect money from the elder Klein.

Copies From Cash Book. Soraghan identified photographic copies of pages from the cash book of the St. Clair Coal & Mining Co., which contained entries such as "Weil—$134." He said the "weil" stood for weight and referred to Rosenheim, who, he said, was known at the company as "Stine."

"When Edw. Klein went to war he told me that I would have to look after 'Stine,'" said Soraghan. "After that I made the payments myself semi-monthly, and I always drew the money by check."

"How did you arrive at the amount you were to pay 'Stine' or Rosenheim?" he was asked.

"By deducting the coal weights registered by the railroad scales from the city scales," he answered.

It was drawn up largely by French and Belgian experts and only toned down by the British to make it palatable. It is a complete code of business law and common law, practically dictating to Russia what legislation must be adopted before other nations will do business there.

Recognition of this is one of the easiest points to overcome, as the soviet government is treated like the reform of justice is a stickler.

Another Clash Anticipated. The experts propose a simplified common law code to apply to foreigners. But it adds rights of extraterritoriality, placing the foreigner in a position where the Russian courts cannot touch him. In short, the soviet government is treated like an Oriental despotism.

Independence of the judicial authority is to be assured by separation of the judicial and executive powers. Foreigners are insured against search, and contracts made abroad are to be executed in Russia according to the foreign law.

Even if the principles were acceptable, the passage of such laws would place Russians in an inferior position in their own country as compared with foreigners. As one of the French officials commented: "It is a bitter pill for the bolshevik to swallow. But if they want to do business with us they must accept European standards of civilization."

As the soviet already have shown they will not accept to everything in the report, another clash between the French and bolshevik is due.

Proposals of Builders. "This association agrees to submit the question to an umpire mutually satisfactory, or to a committee of three, five or seven, whichever may be preferable to you. We will be glad to entertain your suggestions as to how this umpire or committee should be selected. We are willing to arbitrate the wage question alone, or to include both wages and working conditions. We are willing to arbitrate wages, leaving the umpire or committee free to name any wage, or to arbitrate within the limits of the wages, at present enforced by both organizations."

The master builders have been endeavoring to establish the wage of carpenters at 95 cents an hour, while the carpenters have offered to accept a cut from $1.25 to $1.12½. An excerpt from the letter from the master builders follows:

Registered by the railroad scales from those recorded by Rosenheim at the city scales. If there was a difference of 134 tons I paid him $134—a dollar ton. Just as Edw. Klein had told me to do."

"Where were the payments made?" "Sometimes in the company's office and sometimes in the lobby of the Central National Bank Building."

Although subjected to a severe cross-examination, Soraghan did not change a single detail of his story.

WOMAN'S WILL SPECIFIES GIRL HER GRANDSON MUST MARRY

Attorney Says He Thinks She Meant, Instead, to Cut Him Off If He Should Wed the One Named.

The will of Mrs. Catherine Stock of 5122 Easton avenue, who died of cancer disease last night, was filed for probate yesterday. It provided that her grandson, John H. Seehofer, shall not have his share in the residue of the estate unless he marries one of the daughters of a specified family in an Illinois town. Vincent McShane, attorney, who filed the will, said he thought Mrs. Stock, who was elderly, had meant to have the will say her grandson would be cut off if he should marry one of these girls.

The will bequeathed $1000 to a daughter, Mrs. Mary Pecher; $50 to an adopted daughter, Barbara Kohrs, and the residue to her grandson and his sister, Catherine Seehofer. Mrs. Stock's husband died about six weeks ago. Her estate consists chiefly of her home and some insurance. She will be buried in Calvary cemetery Saturday.

CLAIM AGAINST VAN BLARCOM TAKEN UNDER ADVISEMENT

Dr. T. H. Romeiser Puts in Bill of $400 for Services in Having Son of Late Barcom Declared Sane. Probate Judge Holtcamp took under advisement today the claim of Dr. T. H. Romeiser for $400, against Frederick Van Blarcom and his former guardian, the St. Union Trust Co., for professional services in connection with the probate of the will of Van Blarcom, who died in 1917. The claim was filed in the probate court today.

Judge Holtcamp said he was not sure he had jurisdiction over the physician's claim, inasmuch as the guardian had ended. Dr. Romeiser had testified that Van Blarcom was sane. He testified today in support of his claim that $200 was for two examinations of Van Blarcom, and $100 was for consultations with physicians and a lawyer. Van Blarcom is contesting the claim. Other physicians, who charged less, have been paid.

MARONITE ARCHBISHOP HERE

Chakrallah Koury Is Making Survey of Following in America. Chakrallah Koury, Maronite Archbishop of Tyre, arrived in St. Louis yesterday from Kansas City, for a visit of 10 days. He was sent by the Pope to make a survey of the Maronite Church in North and South America, and has visited Mexico and most of the United States during the past three years. He expects to leave for South America next September, to spend several months there.

Archbishop Koury, who speaks six languages, is one of the 14 archbishops of the Maronite order. While in St. Louis he is the guest of Rev. Joseph Stephan, pastor of the church of St. Anthony the Hermit, at 1201 St. Ange avenue.

MASTER BUILDERS REOPEN PARLEYS WITH CARPENTERS

Union Council Urged to Make Suggestions as to Umpire or Committee to Arbitrate Wage Dispute.

WOULD INCLUDE BOTH PAY AND CONDITIONS

Free to Fix Any Wage or Decide Within the 95 Cents and $1.12½ Limits.

In answer to a statement made on behalf of the Carpenters' District Council yesterday that offers of the master builders today to the carpenters' council, urging suggestions as to the manner of selecting an umpire or impartial arbitration committee. The carpenters have signified their willingness to consider a "tangible" arbitration offer.

Proposals of Builders. "This association agrees to submit the question to an umpire mutually satisfactory, or to a committee of three, five or seven, whichever may be preferable to you. We are willing to arbitrate the wage question alone, or to include both wages and working conditions. We are willing to arbitrate wages, leaving the umpire or committee free to name any wage, or to arbitrate within the limits of the wages, at present enforced by both organizations."

The master builders' association yesterday voted to co-operate "absolutely" with the Chamber of Commerce in its stand for "reasonable" wages in the building trades, to reorganize building work on a basis of mutual cooperation, and to proceed with work as rapidly as possible. By "reorganization of jobs" is meant the employment of union and nonunion carpenters who have applied for work at 95 cents an hour.

Officials of the builders' association and of the unions were reluctant to discuss the possibility of an effort to establish the open shop in the local building industry.

The Building Trades Council last night voted to support the carpenters in their effort to maintain the wage of $1.12½. There was said to have been considerable discussion in the newspapers yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce, threatening to invoke the power of public opinion to obtain "reasonable" wages.

15-YEAR-OLD GIRL HELD AFTER SOLICITING FOR AN 'ICE FUND'

Police Say She Admitted Taking Money From Another Woman While Asking for "Contribution."

Opal Posch, 15 years old, 2934 Blaine avenue, was arrested by detectives of the Page Boulevard Station today, after she had approached Mrs. Edward Manion, 5710 Waterman avenue, and solicited money to be used in a "pure milk and ice fund."

The girl, following her arrest, admitted she had taken some money from the apartment of Mrs. Mabel Koenigsberg on the second floor of 5574 Pershing avenue last Tuesday. Mrs. Koenigsberg was in the hall, on the first floor, when Miss Posch called and asked for money for the fund. Mrs. Koenigsberg gave permission for her to go to the Koenigsberg apartment and adjust her skirt, during a discussion of the alleged fund. While she was there, she took the money from a dresser drawer.

MAN, 61, IS SENTENCED TO 15 YEARS ON STATUTORY CHARGE

Henry Lichtermann, 61 years old, 2523 Illinois avenue, was sentenced to 15 years in the penitentiary by a jury in Circuit Judge Kilgore's court yesterday, following his trial on a charge of a statutory offense. A 10-year-old girl was the principal witness against him.

The alleged offense took place Feb. 20, Lichtermann was shown during the trial, that he had two previous terms of two years each on convictions of similar offenses.

LENINE TO GO TO GENOA "AT THE PROPER TIME."

NEWSPAPER REPORTS NIKOLAI LENINE, soviet Premier, will come to Genoa to replace George Chicherin as head of the Russian delegation when the negotiations reach the proper stage, says the newspaper Secolo.

The newspaper adds that an appointment is being arranged for Premier Lenin to arrive at the Villa Poincare of France at the Villa Poincare.

RUSSIANS EXPECTED TO REJECT ALLIED DEMAND FOR MIXED COURTS

banker, is welcomed by the European delegates and experts on account of his practical experience in finance, and he confers daily with the delegates to the conference. Press today that even if the Genoa conference accomplished nothing tangible it was already a distinct success because of the great benefit derived from round table meetings of statesmen and experts from all the countries of Europe.

Even Good Friday will not be a holiday for the delegates to the International Economic Conference, as at least three meetings are to be held on that day. Meetings also are scheduled for Saturday and it is not improbable that there will be sessions on Easter Sunday, so keen are the delegates to get the basis worked out for Europe's financial reconstruction.

Work Proceeds Day and Night. People who came here to enjoy the Easter holidays and the conference have been disappointed, as there is no such thing. At all hours of the day and night the delegates are rushing through the streets on their way to the conference, and from 10 o'clock every day the subcommittees are grinding away. Delegates who are members of more than one subcommittee have to appoint proxies, as three or four of these bodies often meet simultaneously.

The necessity of bringing about equilibrium in national budgets, if the European situation is to be stabilized, formed the subject of discussion at the meeting yesterday of the sub-committee on finance, at which Sir Robert Stevenson, the chairman, proposed an international currency, including the American reserve banks.

The commission decided to make the London experts' report the basis of its deliberations, and to examine the subject of currency, including the American reserve banks.

A report was current in conference circles that the German Chancellor, Dr. Wirth, would return to Berlin within a few days, concerned over internal conditions in that country and apparently depressed over the situation at Genoa.

Barthou Objects to Suspensions. Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, in a speech to the English and American correspondents today strongly protested against the suspensions which, he said, were being entertained regarding the French policy at the conference. He declared it was humiliating for France always to have to repeat that she wanted peace.

M. Barthou expressed regret over the loss of the tripartite English, American and French defensive treaty, but said he supposed the best judge of its own affairs.

Prime Minister Lloyd George, Foreign Minister Schanzer and M. Barthou held an important meeting today. M. Barthou is quoted as saying the real work of the conference begins tomorrow.

Belief was expressed by some of the delegates that the bolshevik courts would be one of the greatest obstacles to settlement of the Russian question. The European nations, it was said, would insist on a settlement of this question before they would be willing to encourage their nationals to go to Russia and engage in trade.

The report submitted by the British experts insists that there must be a division of the judicial and judicial authority in Russia before normal relations with that country are possible; in other words, that trials shall be open and in courts so organized that the Justices will be free from executive pressure, and that prisoners are allowed proper counsel.

This recommendation strikes at the heart of the bolshevik system, which has abolished a large ex-

POPE OF DARING DRESS IN THE PAST

Lady Bontinck Tells of Princess Who Appeared "Nude to Waist."

(Copyright, 1922.) LONDON, April 13.—Lady Norah Bontinck, who wrote a book about former Emperor William, which greatly provoked the chief of the Hohenzollerns, has taken serious issue with the new Pope's denunciation of the modern woman's fashions as "scandalous and indecorous."

Calling on her knowledge of history for ancient days, Lady Norah concludes that, although some modern women may merit the Pope's criticism, the majority should not be reproached, at least in comparison with women's styles in "the good old days." As proof of her contention, she says:

"At what court of Europe of our generation would it be possible to witness such an exhibition as was afforded by Princess Pauline Metternich, who at a state ball at the palace in the presence of Napoleon III and the Empress Eugenie appeared with her hair hanging down her back and 'nude to the waist'?"

"This is not idle gossip but a historical fact. The transparency of the dress of the ladies of the court of Napoleon III was notorious. The beautiful Princess Castiglione was notoriously famous for the beauty of her figure, and her sculptured legs adorned one of the chief moments in Italy today. At the ball in the Tuileries she was so little clothed that the Empress ordered her chamberlain to take the Princess a shawl, as she feared she might be cold."

"Napoleon's women were inordinately proud of her legs and feet, so much so that she invented the startling idea of driving about Rome with her bare legs hanging out the window of her carriage. The gaze of the populace. One wonders whether she received a papal reprimand."

Shaw came into the notice of St. Louis last January, when he got an attachment against the baggage and other personal property of Mrs. Beverly D. Harris of New York, wife of the late Senator from New York City Bank there, who was at Hotel Statler. Shaw alleged that he had loaned Mrs. Harris $3000 in St. Louis last June, of which she had paid only back $1000, and he had her property attached to satisfy his $2100 claim for the balance and interest. A watchman stayed at the hotel three or four days to protect the claim, until the attachment was withdrawn by agreement of counsel.

DENTIST WHO TOOK MAN'S TEETH ON STREET DISCHARGED

Police Judge Doesn't Consider That Dr. F. A. Paschek Disturbed Peace of Man Who Still Owed $12.

Dr. Frank A. Paschek, 27 years old, of 1147 Dover place, who compelled John L. Busch, 47, of Valmeyer, Ill., a barber, to surrender his false teeth on the street in the 3000 block on South Broadway Tuesday, was discharged by Police Judge Homer today on two charges of peace disturbance, one by Busch and one by his wife, who was walking with him. Busch still owed $12 of Dr. Paschek's $20 charge for the teeth.

Busch testified that Dr. Paschek leaped from his automobile and said: "Give me those teeth or I'll take it out of your hide." He seized the teeth as he was removing them, he said.

Dr. Paschek testified that he may have promised Busch to "take it out of his hide." At any rate, he got the teeth, he said.

While the bolsheviks argue that this is an attempt to interfere with the German Chancellor, the allied contention is that the conference is not trying to interfere with the soviet regime, but is merely stating the terms on which Europe would be willing to send her nationals to Russia to engage in trade.

Barthou Objects to Suspensions. Louis Barthou, head of the French delegation, in a speech to the English and American correspondents today strongly protested against the suspensions which, he said, were being entertained regarding the French policy at the conference. ARKANSAS BANK TELLER GETS 3 YEARS FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Hiram G. Shaw Attracted Notice 6 Here Last January When He Attached Baggage of New York Woman.

By the Associated Press. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 13.—Hiram G. Shaw, former teller in the Citizens' National Bank of Hot Springs, was sentenced by United States District Judge Tricker to three years in the penitentiary, following his conviction yesterday of a charge of embezzlement approximately $4000 from the bank.

Shaw was found not guilty yesterday of a second count in the indictment against him which charged misappropriation of $6000 of the bank's funds.

Shaw came into the notice of St. Louis last January, when he got an attachment against the baggage and other personal property of Mrs. Beverly D. Harris of New York, wife of the late Senator from New York City Bank there, who was at Hotel Statler. A watchman stayed at the hotel three or four days to protect the claim, until the attachment was withdrawn by agreement of counsel.

Shaw came into the notice of St. Louis last January, when he got an attachment against the baggage and other personal property of Mrs. Beverly D. Harris of New York, wife of the late Senator from New York City Bank there, who was at Hotel Statler. Shaw alleged that he had loaned Mrs. Harris $3000 in St. Louis last June, of which she had paid only back $1000, and he had her property attached to satisfy his $2100 claim for the balance and interest. ## 'MOST UN-AMERICAN' TARIFF, SAYS SIMMONS

Democrat Who Will Lead Fight Says It Is the Highest Ever Written.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 13.—The administration tariff bill pending in the Senate was assailed today by Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking Democrat on the Senate Finance Committee, as "the most un-American bill ever framed."

"Even a cursory examination indicates that it is the highest tariff bill ever written," declared Senator Simmons, who will lead the minority forces in their fight on the measure in the Senate. "A tariff more unsuited to present conditions, if we are to participate in world trade, could not well have been framed."

Looks for Adversity.

"If it is adopted," continued Senator Simmons in a formal statement, "we will hardly hear much more about Republican tariff bringing prosperity. It will be at least one Republican tariff that will be condemned, not as bringing prosperity, but adversity. In many instances it is excessively higher than the Payne-Aldrich with added provisions authorizing the President under certain conditions to increase these

"So far as the so-called protection accorded agriculture is concerned, only a small fraction of the duties on agricultural products will be operative. They will have no effect, good or bad. The duties on a few agricultural products would result in an advance in prices.

"The high and excessive duties imposed on manufactured products would immediately result in a great increase in the prices of things that the farmers buy, but do not produce. In other words, the result of this so-called protection to agriculture will be, so far as the farmers are concerned, the swapping of dollars for dimes.

"The main purpose of these high duties is to maintain the excessively high prices now obtained for products of industries other than the farm. The operation of the bill necessarily will penalize our export business, which means in the end curtailment of production and increased unemployment on the farms, in the mines and in the factories."

the mines and in the factory. Senator Simmons and other minority members of the committee with the aid of more than a dozen experts, are analyzing the bill so as to be able to present their minority report within the nine days permitted by the majority. Pointing out that the bill was drafted by the Republicans behind closed doors and carried 2000 amendments to the original Fordney measure. Senator Simmons said the minority "couldn't in any nine days, working intensively, adequately investigate and study a bill of this size which occupied three months in the writing."

Former Head of Continental Portland Cement Co. Died in Chicago.
Funeral services for David Anderson Marks, 73 years old, president of the Continental Portland Cement Co. from its foundation in 1911 until his retirement last January, who died Tuesday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Louis J. Kemps, in Chicago, will be held at 2:30 p. m. Sat.

Friday at an undertaker's chapel at 1621 Olive street. Interment will be in Bellefontaine Cemetery. Marks, previous to the formation of the cement company, was a manufacturer of breakfast foods and was a wholesale grocer. He was president of the Continental Brick Co. He is survived by his daughter and his widow Mrs. Sarah Stehle Marks.

GRAND JURY OPENS INQUIRY INTO DEATH OF CAMPANELLA

Turnkey Who Found Body Hanging by Shirt Sleeves in Cell in East St. Louis Police Station Testifies.

POLICE BOARD INQUIRY WILL BEGIN TONIGHT

Complaints and Affidavits Relative to Police Brutality to Prisoners Will Be Heard in Courtroom.

The St. Clair County grand jury, in session in Belleville, yesterday began an investigation of the death of John Campanella of 2005 Missouri avenue, who died in a cell at police headquarters in East St. Louis on Saturday night, March 25, while being held on a charge of participating in the murder of Charles Lemon, who was shot and killed in Campanella's drink parlor on the night of March 20.

Charles McHenry, turnkey and wagon officer at police headquarters, who said that he found Campanella hanging in his cell and cut the sleeves of Campanella's shirt by which the body was suspended, permitting the body to fall to the granite floor, was a witness before the grand jury yesterday.

The action of the grand jury in investigating the case at this time is contrary to announcement made by John Hamlin, acting State's Attorney, who said that the grand jury would investigate the matter after the Board of Fire and Police Commissioners had completed its inquiry, which will be started this evening.

Post-Mortem Disclosed Bruises. Campanella's body was discolored on the shoulders, neck and eyes, and a physician who made a post-mortem examination said that death did not result from strangulation. It is alleged by Mrs. Josie Campanella, widow of John Campanella, that her husband was beaten by detectives while they were trying to obtain a statement, involving himself, relative to Lemon's murder.

The East St. Louis Board of Fire and Police Commissioners will hold a session this evening at 8 o'clock in the City Court room to hear complaints and consider affidavits relative to alleged police brutality to prisoners, using the Campanella case as a basis. The investigation is at the request of the East St. Louis City Council, which adopted resolutions to that effect.

Will Hear Other Evidence. George Roe, president of the board, said that although the resolution asks only for the investigation of the Campanella case, the board would be ready to listen to statements relative to other alleged acts of brutality.

Assistant State's Attorney John W. Freels will attend the session as a spectator, at the request of Acting State's Attorney Hamlin, to obtain a list of persons who may have firsthand information regarding the Campanella or any other case of abuse, that may be of benefit to the grand jury in its investigation of alleged police brutality.

A delegation of citizens of St. Louis, of Italian descent, will call on Mayor Stephens of East St. Louis this afternoon to express the Italians' appreciation of his attitude toward an investigation into Campanella's death.

Italian Consul in Party. The Italian delegation, of 10 or 12 men, will be headed by Jules Bertero, secretary of the St. Louis Lodge of Elks. Other members of it will be Robert de Violini, the Italian Consul; Gustav Cicardi and Angelo Corrubia. They were all appointed at a meeting.

Consul Violini said today: "The Italians of St. Louis are very much interested and feel that the inquiry should be carried to the end." He explained that he was not acting officially because Campanella was a naturalized American citizen.

The Board of Fire and Police Commissioners will begin an inquiry tonight with a hearing. After obtaining information as to Campanella's imprisonment and death the Commissioners will make a report to the City Council.

Widows Appeal for Help. Mrs. Charles Lemon of 6900 State street, East St. Louis, whose husband was killed in Campanella's saloon and rooming house at 2005 Missouri avenue, yesterday appealed to the East St. Louis police for assistance for herself and five children. Mrs. Lemon is without funds or food and the family is being cared for by Nick Vitala at 6900 Church lane. The children range in age from 2 months to 5 years. The case has been referred to Louis Rose, overseer of the poor, and James K. Ewing and Mrs. Charles Lambert, who supervise the municipal and county departments treating with the care of juvenile children.

Mrs. Campanella appealed to Rose, Ewing and Mrs. Lambert last Monday for assistance. Mrs. Campanella has four children, ranging in age from 4 years to 13 years, and she said she was without money or any other means of providing for them. Mrs. Lambert yesterday placed the youngest child, Antonio, 4 years old, in the dependent children's home, to be cared for until such time as Mrs. Campanella is able to care for him. Rose told Mrs.

Campanella to return and he would aid her as far as his office would permit. She has not returned. He has been informed that persons who became aware of her condition through her appeal to Mayor Stephens, and later to Rose, Ewing and Mrs. Lambert, are aiding her to care for herself and the three oldest children.

Cardinal Began Against Suffrage.

By the Associated Press. QUEBEC, April 12.—Cardinal Begin has authorized the publication of a letter he wrote last March opposing woman suffrage in the province of Quebec. "The entry of women into politics, even by the vote alone," the Cardinal wrote, "is not justified by anything, neither by a natural right nor by social interest. The Roman authorities approve our views, which are shared by all our episcopate. Our professors, in their teachings should be mindful of this direction."

HEARING ON PROPOSED PHONE RATE INCREASE BEGINS TODAY

City Counselor Thinks Application of Southwestern Bell Co. Is Justified.

A hearing on the application of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. to increase its rates for business telephones in St. Louis to cover an expected increase in cost of operation after the absorption of the Kinloch system, next year, was begun by the State Public Service Commission today in the rooms of the Board of Public Service at the City Hall.

No opposition to the company's application was manifested at the opening of the hearing. Those present were representatives of the Bell and Kinloch companies, and of the city's legal department. City Counselor Caulfield has said that he does not intend to oppose the application, as he considers the proposed increase justified.

MAGNESIA FINE FOR ACID STOMACH

Quickly Neutralizes Acidity. Stops Fermentation, Sweetens the Stomach

Nine people in ten, when food upsets the stomach, causing distress, think they have indigestion. In reality they are suffering from "acid stomach." An excess of acid in the stomach causes gas, heartburn, bloating and sourness. To have a strong healthy stomach capable of easily and normally digesting three hearty meals a day you simply must keep these stomach acids neutralized and the stomach contents sweet. No artificial digestants are necessary. Just get a few ounces of Blaud's Magnesia from any good drug store and take a teaspoonful of the powder or two tablets in a half glass of water right after eating or whenever the slightest pain is felt. The result is amazing and you will be delighted with the almost instant relief it brings. This famous stomach sweetener, completely harmless, is not only splendidly effective but perfectly harmless. Its regular use keeps the stomach sweet, strong and healthy all the time. Blaud's Magnesia is well known to druggists everywhere and is used annually by more than a half million people who now eat as they please, in reason with no more fear of indigestion.

How to Keep White Clothes From Turning Grey

Haven't you often wondered why your white clothes sometimes have a dingy, grey look? Almost always it is because you haven't rinsed them thoroughly—and it is next to impossible to rinse clothes clean if you don't use the right kind of soap. Soaps that do not dissolve completely leave little sticky, greyish particles on the clothes. You just can't rinse these off. A soap like Rinso dissolves completely. When you soak your clothes in Rinso suds there are little bits of undissolved soap to hold the dirt. You can rinse out all the dirty, sudsy water. Then, too, with Rinso there is no hard rubbing. It racks out all but the most ground-in dirt. Use Rinso and your clothes will always be snowy white—without that grey look that makes you ashamed to hang them out.

DEFIES GOV. REILY AND IS OUSTED FROM JOB BY POLICE

Porto Rican District Attorney Had Refused to Surrender His Office.

By the Associated Press.
SAN JUAN, April 12.—District Attorney Diaz Collazo, ordered by Gov. Reily to surrender his office, refused to do so yesterday on the ground that he had been illegally removed. He was forcibly ousted with the aid of the police.

All evidence in the investigation of Gov. Reily was taken away personally from the District Attorney's office by the Assistant Attorney General.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—Differing versions as to the grounds for the removal from office of District Attorney Diaz Collazo, ordered by Gov. Reily to surrender his office, presented today in a cablegram received from the Governor by Secretary Weeks and a statement issued by Felix Cordova Davila, resident Commissioner of the island.

Gov. Reily informed Secretary Weeks that he had removed the District Attorney because Collazo had made an "improper proposal" regarding the evidences submitted to the grand jury which returned a presentment against Reily and several of his official associates. This was flatly denied in Commissioner Davila's statement.

SEVENTEEN WOMEN EXPELLED FROM MICHIGAN NORMAL

Notice That Smoking, or Receiving Attention From Strange Men Is Forbidden, Issued by President.

By the Associated Press.
YPSILANTI, Mich., April 12.—Seventeen women students at the Michigan State Normal College here have been asked to leave the institution and 13 others have been placed on probation, as the result of alleged infractions of school regulations.

Coincident with this information, a proclamation was issued by Charles McKenny, president, and Mrs. Beale Leach Friddy, dean of women, to faculty members, citing a list of things that are forbidden at the school.

"The college will not knowingly permit any young woman to remain in school, much less graduate her, who smokes tobacco," the proclamation stated.

"Until the people of Michigan change their attitude and are willing to take women smokers as teachers, the college will adhere to this policy," it added.

Evasions of closing hours, automobile riding without permission, attentions from strange men and "familiar access to rooming houses by way of windows," also are on the list of forbidden adventures.

120-TON STABILIZER TO STOP ROLLING OF SHIPS TO BE TESTED

Gyroscopic Device Designed to Prevent Seasickness; Wheel Counteracts Motion of Vessel.

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, April 12.—A large gyro-stabilizer, designed to eliminate seasickness by preventing the rolling of ships to be tested late today at the plant of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co.

The stabilizer weighs 120 tons. It will be installed in the Shipping Board steamer Hawkeye State and operates on the principle of the common top gyroscopic. The theory of its operation is that when the ship rolls, the gyro stabilizer exerts force in the opposite direction, equalizing the motion.

The wheel of the stabilizer, which furnishes the power equalizing the roll of the ship has a revolution of 300 turns a minute and the force is such that it is said to spin for 18 hours after the power is shut off.

It is said the stabilizer also can be used to roll a ship, thus being effective in moving stranded vessels from shoals. The action is controlled by small gyroscopes along the sides of the vessel. These register the direction of the roll and automatically start the large stabilizer wheel revolving in the direction necessary to counteract the motion of the ship.

CHITA FORCES REPORTED ROUTED BY JAPANESE TROOPS

Neutral Zone Between Them and Far East Republic Cleared, Vladivostok Dispatch Says.

By the Associated Press.
TOKIO, April 12.—Japanese troops have driven the Chita Government forces out of the neutral zone between them and the Vladivostok Government troops, says a dispatch received in Tokyo today from Vladivostok.

The clash between Japanese troops and forces of the Far Eastern Republic has had little effect on the attitude of the press toward the continued occupation of Siberia. Most of the newspapers still advocate evacuation.

Will Head Exploration Party.
By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 12.—Edmund Heller, who accompanied Theodore Roosevelt on his African explorations, sailed yesterday for Callao, Peru, to head the expedition sent by the Field Museum of Chicago, into South American jungles. Among other things, the party will study and classify plants used by the Indians for medicine.

Here Is Men's Clothing as Good as the Best in America

In the choice of styles, in the tailoring, and in the values.

The St. Louis Club, located on Lindell, just west of Grand, is sketched.

Men's and Young Men's Suits, $35, $40 and $45

Men's and Young Men's Topcoats, $25 to $45

Men's and Young Men's Gabardines, $21.75 to $45

Men's Sports Suits with Long Trousers and Knickers, $35 to $50

A few days ago, a man came through here on his way home. He lived in New York City. He looked at some of our sports suits having a long pair of trousers and a pair of knickers. He thought them good, but said he would wait until he reached home and would look around there, but he would be back through here in about two weeks; if he could not find better values in New York City, that he would stop and purchase a suit from us on his return trip. He came back a few days ago and purchased one of our sports suits at $45.00. He said New York City clothing merchants could not show him sports suits equal to ours under $65.

Every man who buys Vandervoort clothing is enthusiastic about the values.

Every man who buys his Easter Suit here will be satisfied. The time is short; only two more days until Easter, so come in tomorrow and make your selection.

'COMMON SENSELESSNESS' ERA IN WOMEN'S DRESS, HIS OPINION

New York Fine Arts Head Laments Exposure of "Ugly Parts of Bodies."

By the Associated Press.

JAMAICA, April 11.—This is an era of common senselessness in women's attire, Frank A. Parsons, president of the New York School of Fine and Applied Arts, declared yesterday at the Women's Club.

"Not since the beginning of time," he said, "have women been so grotesque in attire and so ugly in proportion as those of the so-called fashionable set of today. They show a total lack of common sense in the exposure of parts of their body that are as ugly as can be and persist in hanging a chain a half a foot lower than their waist line, just for style's sake."

JUDGE MISTAKEN AS TO ST. LOUIS MURDERS

Chicagoan Apparently Quoted From Figures Showing Arrests for That Crime.

Judge William N. Gemmill, of the in an address before the American Bar Association in Chicago Tuesday, that there were 426 murders in St. Louis in 1921. On this basis, the Judge charged that St. Louis was the worst of American cities, as to prevalence of crime.

There were not 426 murders in St. Louis in 1921, or in any other year. There were 426 arrests on murder and manslaughter charges in St. Louis in the fiscal year 1920-21, and this seems to have been what the Judge was referring to.

The number of arrests on murder charges is much larger than the number of murders. In some murders, more than one person is implicated. In other cases, several persons are arrested on suspicion after one murder, and sometimes all are released when no definite evidence against them develops. All these arrests on suspicion add to the number appearing in the record.

How Figures Were Obtained.

Judge Gemmill wrote to Mayor Kiel in February, asking for statistics of crime in St. Louis, and requesting, in so many words, that
"the number of arrests" for 1921 and the three years preceding be furnished to him, under the headings of burglary, robbery, murder, manslaughter and drunkenness.

The Mayor referred the letter to Secretary Bartelsmeyer of the Police Board, and he, with the assistance of C. L. Frerichs, chief clerk in charge of records, furnished the information requested. The police statistics cover the fiscal years ending April 1. In the letter to Judge Gemmill, the figures for the fiscal year 1917-18 were given under the head of 1918, and so on through the subsequent years, so that the figures which appeared under the head of 1921 were those of the year from April 1, 1920, to April 1, 1921.

The figures on arrests submitted to Judge Gemmill by the St. Louis Police Board secretary were:

|                          | 1918.  | 1919.  | 1920.  | 1921.  |
|--------------------------|--------|--------|--------|--------|
| Total number of arrests  | 54,400 | 49,030 | 45,879 | 43,193 |
| Arrests for murder       | 197    | 169    | 215    | 389    |
| Arrests for manslaughter | 295    | 575    | 599    | 751    |
| Arrests for robbery      | 84     | 33     | 15     | 35     |
| Arrests for drunkenness  | 1,308  | 1,087  | 1,717  | 4,740  |
| Arrests for burglary     | 3,504  | 2,941  | 1,851  | 993    |

As a result of the statement made by Judge Gemmill in his speech before the Bar Association, the Chamber of Commerce has written to him, asking the source of his information, and citing figures from the Coroner's report. The Coroner's record, which are for the calendar year, not the fiscal year, show that in 1921 there were 118 murders and 26 other homicides, not classed as murders, in St. Louis.

"The mistake Judge Gemmill made," Secretary Bartelsmeyer of the Police Board said this morning,
"was that he mistook the activity of the police for the activity of criminals."

Increase for Last Fiscal Year.

Bartelsmeyer said the record for 1921-1922, now being made up, would show a large increase in the number of arrests over the previous year. The total number of arrests, according to the present unverified figures, will be $7,694, or an increase of 33 per cent over the previous fiscal year. He attributes the increased number of arrests to the activity of night-riders and special squads, in the endeavor to "clean up" the city and to drive criminals out.

"One robbery," the secretary said,
"may result in 10 or 15 arrests on suspicion. Perhaps all are released later, but they are police characters, and the policy is to make St. Louis too hot for men of known criminal practices. A suspicious character arrested on the street may be booked as suspected of highway robbery. Thereafter, therefore, furnish no index to the number of crimes actually committed, and the number of arrests, not the number of crimes, was what Judge Gemmill specifically asked for."

SUEZ CANAL TONNAGE JUMPED 544,000 TONS OVER 1920 MARK

Traffic for Waterway, However, Is Below Pre-War Level—Liners Back on Routes.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Tonnage of vessels transiting the Suez Canal in 1921, according to Department of Commerce, was 18,118,999
net tons, an increase of 544,000 tons over 1920, and a decrease of 84 in number. Big liners used as transports during the war have been repaired and returned to their old routes.

Traffic is below pre-war level, as the following table shows:

| Year | No.   | Net Tons   | Cargo      |
|------|-------|------------|------------|
| 1921 | 2,875 | 18,118,999 | 17,507,000 |
| 1920 | 2,805 | 17,574,999 | 16,776,000 |

From the outbreak of the war, coal shipments southward through the canal declined steadily until 1920, when the total was scarcely more than the pre-war monthly average. In spite of the disturbance in the British coal industry during the first half of 1921, total shipments of this commodity have practically regained their former volume. The movement of metals and machinery, including railway material, also increased over 1920, but was below the pre-war level. Total cargo passing south during 1921 was 4,745,000 tons, or 45 per cent less than in 1919.

Volume of rice moving northbound during 1921 was almost twice that for 1920, but slightly under 1919. Wheat also increased over both 1919 and 1920.

A SEWING MACHINE SENSATION

It is so different from any other Sewing Machine the woman knows that it creates a sensation wherever it is shown.

Be alone in the first sensation—there is hardly a purr as the fabric glides magically beneath the needle. Silence born of its exclusive DIRECT-DRIVE electric motor.

Then the stitch! A beautiful perfect stitch, three times as strong as ordinary stitches.

And it has NO BOBBINS TO WIND, NO TENSION TO ADJUST—features in themselves sensational.

This machine is indeed different. Come to our store and see it, or phone us to bring one to your home for a demonstration. Even the paying will be made pleasant, if you decide to purchase.

Dr. H. Allen of Congress Avenue, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible ailment left him helpless and unable to move.

After he decided, after years of agony, that no one can be free of rheumatism until the accumulated poisons are removed from the blood, he turned to the study of the blood.

He made experiments and finally discovered that quick relief could be obtained by the use of a certain medicine.

He then made a discovery, which he called "Gouraud's Oriental Cream". After years of trying to get relief everywhere, he finally discovered that quick relief could be obtained by the use of a certain medicine.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 12.—The wage scale of electrotyping finishers in the book and job electrotyping shops of Greater New York will remain unchanged at $59 a week for another year as a result of a decision made by Laurence T. Hinch, chairman of the board of arbitration which sat on the question of wage readjustments. The employing association asked for a reduction of $7 a week. The workers asked for an increase of $5.

EQUIPMENT OF ALL POLICE AUTOS WITH SIRENS PLANNED
Chief Hoagland Will Seek to Have Use of Signal Restricted So Public Can Identify Detectives' Cars.
The wall of a siren upon an approaching automobile will mean that the detectives are coming, if Chief of Detectives Hoagland succeeds in his plan to equip all the machines used by detectives with the sirens, and if the Board of Aldermen will pass, and the Mayor will sign, an ordinance forbidding the use of sirens on private automobiles.

Chief Hoagland has prepared a requisition for 23 sirens, of a pattern which fits upon the exhaust of the machine. A siren of this design is now in use on the car used by Chief of Police O'Brien. Hoagland wishes to have the use of this device restricted, by ordinance, to the police, Fire Department and ambulance service, and to make the requirement that all traffic shall come to a standstill when a machine sounding this signal approaches. At present, there is complaint that some automobile drivers mistake the night-riders and other city detectives approaching them in automobiles, for robbers, and flee from

SECOND CARD PARTY ROBBER CONFESSES

Youth Describes Part in Robbery
Where "$25,000 or $30,000"
Was to Be Gotten.

Michael McHale, 15 years old, the second to be arrested of the three robbers who held up a young woman's card party at Probate Judge Samuel D. Hodgdon's home in Webster Groves Tuesday afternoon, has confessed to the St. Louis police his part in that robbery.

McHale says that Frank Harrington, who was caught soon after the card party robbery, was the leader in that robbery. Harrington has confessed his part in it, and has admitted also that he was one of the three men who took possession of the home of Louis Idler, 6821 Pershing avenue, University City, the afternoon of March 27, locked Mrs. Idler and two servants in closets, and took money and jewels.

Denies Part in Idler Robbery.
McHale says he had no part in the Idler robbery, and that he had not associated with Harrington until a day or two before the Webster Groves crime. McHale lives at 2609 Blair avenue and has worked as a sign painter.

"Harrington invited me to take a trip in the country in his machine," McHale said to Chief of Detectives Hagland in his confession yesterday. "He said he knew a place where we could get $25,000 or $30,000 by holding up 25 or 30 rich women who would be playing cards, and that we would get a lot of jewelry besides. He said he had been out there, and knew where the game was to be."

"I met him at Thirteenth and Clinton streets at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, and the other man was already in his car with him."

"On the way out," McHale continued, "Harrington stopped his machine at one place where there was a newspaper fastened under a telephone post. He dug down at the foot of the post and brought out a revolver, which he said he had kept planted there. It was rusty in places."

Where Mistake Was Made.
McHale then told the story of the invasion of the Hodgdon home, and said that he, McHale, kept Harrington from striking Dr. Marshall Baker on the head with his revolver. Dr. Baker called while the robbery was going on. He said the robbers made their mistake in granting some freedom of movement to Miss Cora May (Teddie) Hodgdon, hostess at the party, who contrived to send the telephone message which brought the Webster Groves police.

McHale said that, in his flight, he darted into a chicken house, and hid under a space where the hens had their nests. Two of the searchers entered the chicken house, he said, but did not look in the place where he was. He lay there until nearly dark, then walked to the Manchester car line, and being without carfare, he stole a ride on the rear coupler of the car until he was put off at Maplewood, and walked to Fourteenth and Monroe streets, where detectives were waiting for him, having learned his name from Harrington.

Because of the confession made by Harrington in the case of the Idler robbery, and his admissions as to the disposal of the stolen jewelry, two young men and a young woman were arrested yesterday, on charges of receiving the stolen articles.

DEPUTY TO POLICE MERAMEC

Office Is Secured Through Efforts of Missouri Women's Clubs.

A Deputy Sheriff for policing the Meramec River has been obtained by the Public Welfare Committee of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs, following the adoption of a program for the river similar to that of last year.

The deputy's duties will consist in patrolling the river, investigating improper conditions reported in clubhouses and camps in the vicinity, and curbing the consumption of "moonshine" which is alleged to take place there. He will be supported and assisted in his work by the Welfare Committee.

"TIZ" FOR TENDER, SORE, TIRED FEET

Ah! what relief. No more tired feet; no more burning feet, swollen, bad smelling, sweaty feet. No more pain in corns, callouses or bunions. No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ".

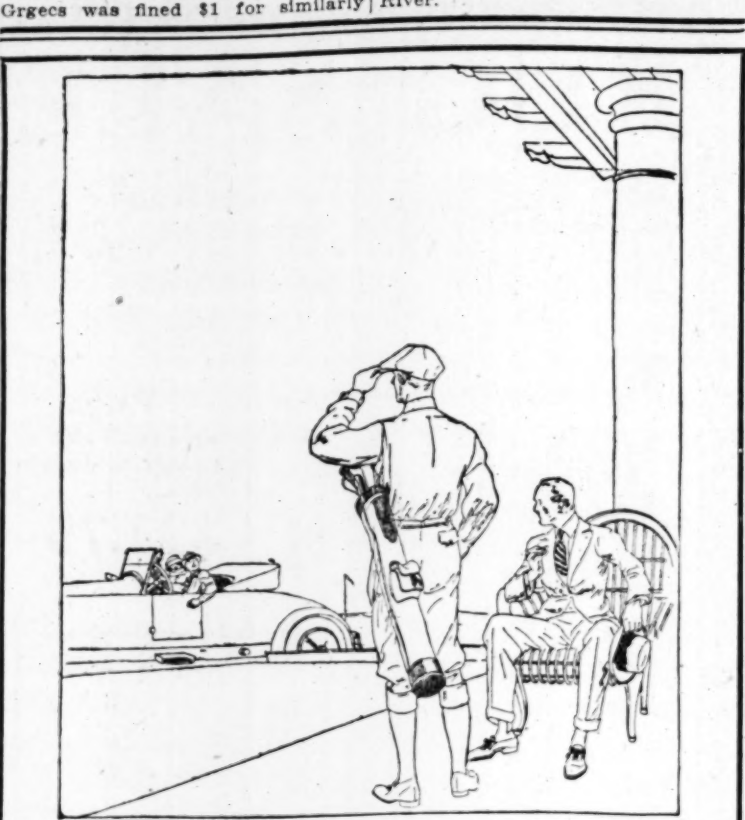

"TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet; "TIZ" is a magic!

"TIZ" is grand; "TIZ" will cure your foot troubles so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore, swollen or tired.

Get a box at any drug or department store, and get relief for a few cents.

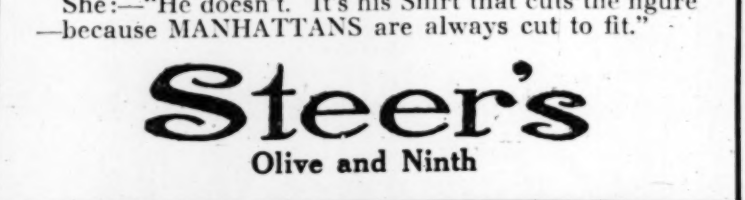

Mike Miller and John Mikas. Anton Orgecs was fined $1 for similarly violating the law in the Mississippi River.

He:—"I never could understand why he always cuts such a fine figure."

She:—"He doesn't. It's his Shirt that cuts the figure—because MANHATTANS are always cut to fit."

TWO ROBBERS HOLD UP DRUG STORE, GET $135

Clerk Forced to Lock Up Place and Leave; 85 Cents Taken From Boy Returned.

After robbing the drug store of Edward Medler at 204 and West Florissant avenues last night at 10:30 o'clock, two young men with revolvers compelled the clerk to lock up the store and walk ahead of them. Venturing to look around after he had gone a block, the clerk found that the robbers had fled, apparently up an alley on the route.

A 16-year-old boy, Ignatius Steinlage of 4224 West Florissant avenue, who was compelled to accompany the clerk, Philip Quante of 2134 Alice avenue, was chatting with the clerk when the robbers entered. The cash register was empty, but the robbers located the hiding place of $135 taken from it. They took, also, $15 from Quante and a watch, and searched the boy. He had 85 cents.

"Gee," he exclaimed, "I didn't think you would rob kids."

"We won't," one of the robbers said shame-facedly, and handed back the 85 cents.

As they were departing one of the robbers said to the other: "Don't we want some cigars?"

"Sure," his companion replied, and, returning inside the store, they filled their pockets from the cigar case, after which they compelled Quante and young Steinlage to go with them.

Widow, Saloon Keeper, Robbed Second Time in Week.
Mrs. J. Jovak Bolanovich, a widow with five children, who conducts a saloon at 801 South Vandeventer avenue, was robbed for the second time within a week last night. On last Thursday at 2 p. m. two young men with revolvers took $533.48 which she was counting at a desk in preparation for cashing checks of employees at a nearby packing plant. They also took $108.50 from customers in the place.

Last night at 10:45 o'clock two young men with handkerchiefs over their faces and carrying revolvers, compelled Mrs. Bolanovich and three customers to go to a rear room, after which they took $30 from a cash register and ran out through the front door which they had bolted at their entrance.

Safe Robbers Frightened Away.
Burglars last night knocked the combination off two safes in the drug store of Victor H. Krummenacher at 1119 Union boulevard, but were frightened away before they could force the inner door. Apparently by these events: A Mrs. Marshall, living at 5309 Cabanne avenue, was awakened at 3:40 a. m. by a noise in the alley. Peering from a window, she saw a man walking around an automobile which belonged to a roomer in her home, William Apt. She awakened Apt, who shouted: "What are you doing there?" The man leaped on a motor cycle and drove off. The police found that a rear window leading to the basement of the Krummenacher store had been forced. They are of the opinion that the man walking around the automobile was a lookout and that his alarm at Apt's shout caused his companions to desert their job.

SLIDES TO STREET ON SHEET

Man Taken to Hospital After Leaving His Home Through Window.
Policeman Dalton yesterday saw a man lowering himself from the second floor window at 2201 South Third street by means of a bed sheet tied inside the window. When the man reached the ground the policeman questioned him and he replied: "The gang's after me and they're going to kill me." He then gave his name as Joseph Makamul, 35 years old. His wife, Elizabeth, told the policeman her husband had been sick. He was taken to the city hospital.

$15,000 for Boy Hit by Auto.
A jury in Circuit Judge Rutledge's court yesterday returned a verdict for $15,000 damages in favor of Thomas Russell, 2 1/2 years old, 412 Victor street, against Benjamin Lapin, 19 years old, who injured the child in an automobile accident at 1000 Soudard street on Aug. 10, 1931. The child was crossing the street when struck by an automobile driven by Lapin. The latter's father, Samuel Lapin, a tailor, was also named as defendant but was exonerated on his statement that the son was not on any mission for him when the accident occurred.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair
Dark and Glossy

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and luster to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Every body uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

LEGION FAVORS POWERFUL NAVY

MacNider Pledges Its Support in Fight for Adequate Force.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 13.—The proposed reduction of the navy by Congress is "disastrous and a threat to national safety," Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion said in a telegram to President Harding today pledging the support of his organization to the President in his fight for an adequate navy.

Influences in Congress are trying to make the United States a second-rate naval power, MacNider declared. The telegram to the President said: "The safety of our whole country depends first of all upon the navy. It is our first line of national defense in time of war and must be kept ready as an impregnable bulwark behind which complete national mobilization can be effected. Never again can we hope to prepare behind the fleet of another nation as we did in the world war."

COX'S BOLD STAND FOR LEAGUE STIRS POLITICAL CIRCLES

Readiness to Champion International Co-operation Interpreted as Bid for Democratic Leadership.

REPUBLICANS NOT SO COMFORTABLE

Borah Says There Is Growth of Sentiment in Party for Going In; What Practical Politicians Think.

By DAVID LAWRENCE, A Special Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Former Gov. Cox of Ohio has started something of a commotion in the political world. Democrats as well as Republicans may differ as to the ultimate effect of his attempt to revive the League of Nations as an issue before the American people, but his readiness to champion again the question of international co-operation is interpreted as a bid for the leadership of the Democratic party which has been floundering without direction or guidance since the defeat of 1920.

Those who know James M. Cox and his record in Ohio say he is never defeated—that many a man would have been discouraged after a setback such as he sustained after his first term as Governor, but he stuck to his guns and was elected Governor for two terms thereafter. Anyone who has believed Mr. Cox is out of the running and is not to be reckoned with found out differently this week when the former standard-bearer of the party entered the arena. He has not feared to tread and boldly announced his faith in the League of Nations issue.

The effect in Congress has been to arouse discussion in which, of course, even Democrats not particularly friendly to Mr. Cox have questioned the wisdom of interpreting the league issue into the congressional campaign when there are so many other things that have happened in Congress, or failed to happen, which can absorb the stump speakers this autumn.

Since the 1920 campaign, many things have happened pointing to the need of international co-operation. Mr. Cox will continue to urge that entrance into the League of Nations was the right formula. Others will say America should have attended the Genoa economic conference. And on top of all this, President Harding is getting ready to join the Reparations Commission and to have America participate in a trade and economic conference to be summoned after Genoa.

The original "Irreconcilable" group will resist the move. T. H. Harding follows their will, the campaign of 1924 will undoubtedly see the issue of international co-operation brought to the fore. If Mr. Harding by 1924 has brought the United States into the councils of world powers and has gotten results, his defenders will insist that he has accomplished as much if not more than by a rigid formula such as the league covenant provided.

Began Two Years in Advance.

The significant thing is that Gov. Cox's campaign for international co-operation has been begun two years in advance of the next presidential campaign. No less a person than Senator Borah says sentiment among the Republicans has grown in favor of entering the League of Nations and he accuses Secretaries Hughes and Hoover of working still toward that end. Some of the leading politicians among the Democrats on Capitol Hill wish Gov. Cox had waited until after the congressional elections and started things with the rise in Democratic stock expected to materialize at the polls this year, but friends of Mr. Cox say the Democrats have been silent too long already and that political fights are never won by waiting too long to rouse public opinion.

Shipbuilding Reverts to Normal.

By the Associated Press.

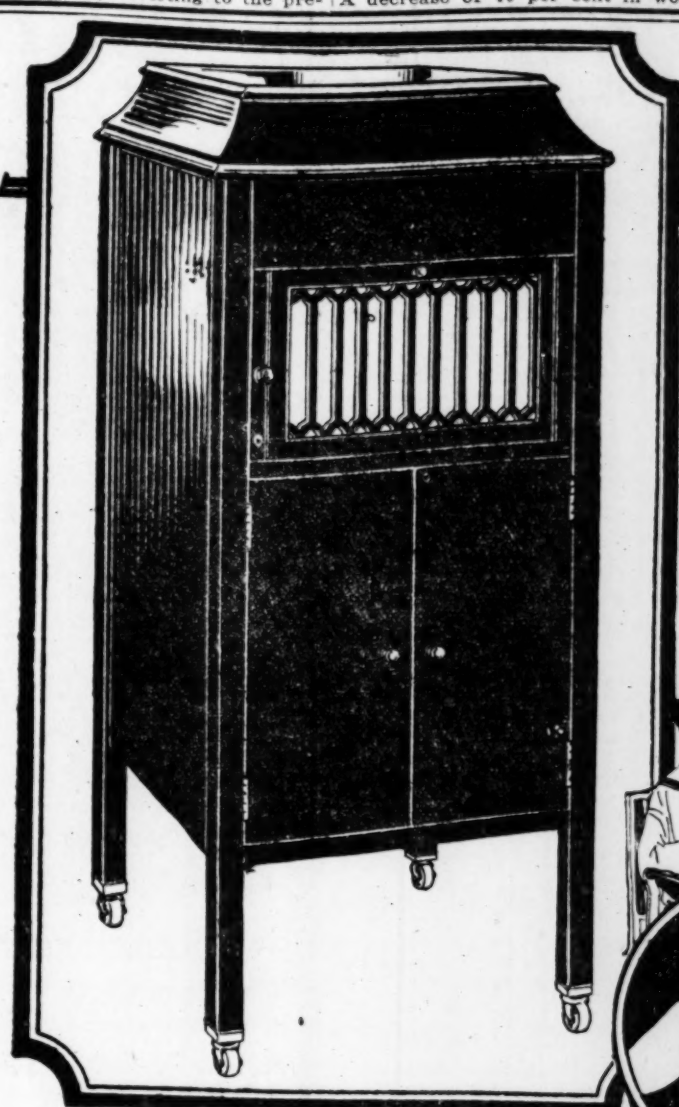

NEW YORK, April 13.—American shipyards are building 136,800 gross tons of shipping, 8000 tons less than were in the yards on July 1, 1914, said a statement issued by the War Relocation Authority.

DYE FADED SKIRT DRESS, CURTAINS IN DIAMOND DYES

Each package of "Diamond Dyes" contains directions so simple any woman can dye or tint her worn, shabby dresses, skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, draperies, hangings, everything, even if she has never dyed before. Buy "Diamond Dyes"—no other kind—then perfect home dyeing is sure because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to spot, fade, streak, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods.

Lloyd's. World shipbuilding in general is rapidly reverting to the pre-war scale, the statement continues. In hand has been reported for American yards in the past three months. A decrease of 40 per cent in work in the yards in the past three months.

Two-Day Easter Offer!

Vocalion Red Records

For Friday and Saturday Only

JUDGE FARIS WON'T EXCUSE
GRAND JURY BECAUSE OF FLOOD

Tells Members He Has Lived in Swamps Enough to Know When River Is Dangerous.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., April 12.—Judge Faris yesterday denied a request of several Federal grand jurors, based on "high water conditions," to be excused, and sent them much against their will back to consider several cases yet pending.

Several of the jurors told Judge Faris they were from Dunklin and Pemiscot counties where high water has become dangerous. In denying their request to be excused for this reason he said: "I lived in these swamp sections of Missouri for many years and I think I can judge the situation as well as anybody. From the present stage of the river there is little actual danger, and unless I become convinced that we shall either have to swim or wade home from here you will go forward with your consideration of such matters as District Attorney Carroll presents to you in keeping with your oaths as jurors."

Judging from the height of the water here, I can tell you gentlemen exactly how much farther the river must rise before it will endanger Caruthersville and other points south of us. There is not now any danger, and as far as I am able to judge there is none in the offing."

JEWISH DEBATES ON FRATERNITY
AS RACE AID NEXT SUNDAY

Contentions to Be Advanced at Shaare Emeth and the United Hebrew Temples.

Debates on "Resolved, That the Jewish University Fraternity is a help in Combating Anti-Semitism," will be held Sunday at 11 a. m. at Shaare Emeth Congregation, Vandeventer avenue and Lindell boulevard, and at the temple of the United Hebrew Congregation, King's highway and Enright avenue, under auspices of the Inter-Temple Junior Council.

In the debate at Shaare Emeth, the affirmative will be taken by Samuel Rosenkranz, Hyman Soler and Bertrand Glasberg of Temple Israel, and the negative will be presented by Joseph H. Schweig, Miss Virginia Meyer and Philip Weisskopf of Shaare Emeth. At the United Hebrew temple, Miss Deutsch, Bernard Fischlowitz and Miss Rosella Goldman of that congregation, will uphold the affirmative. Joseph Senturia, Victor Packman and Ralph Marge of B'Nai El Congregation, will take the negative side.

BECK BURIED AT ARLINGTON

Army Officer Killed in Oklahoman's Home Receives Military Honors.

By the Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, April 12.—The body of Lieutenant-Colonel Paul W. Beck of the army air service, shot and killed recently by Jean Day in his home at Oklahoma City, was buried yesterday in the family lot behind Arlington National Cemetery with military ceremonies, including the firing of a salute over the grave and the sounding of taps.

Three airplanes maneuvered over the cemetery during the services. At the request of the family there was no funeral procession. The ashes of Col. Beck's wife, who died in August, were buried with the body in an urn.

MONTANA BUYS FOREIGN BIRDS

Shipment on Way From Europe to Be Distributed Free.

By the Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 12.—For the first time since 1914 a shipment of more than 1000 game birds for stocking the game preserves of the West has started on its way from Europe to the United States. R. R. Holland, vice president of the American Game Protective and Propagation Association announced today.

The cargo of live wild birds, Hungarian partridge, consists of 840 pairs in 60 cages. "The State of Montana, through its Department of Fish and Game, has purchased these birds," said Holland. "Montana is distributing these birds free throughout the State."

Be Careful What
Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is injurious, as it dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is Mulsified oil shampoo, for this is entirely greaseless. It's cheap and beats anything else. You can get Mulsified at drug stores, and a few ounces will wash the whole family for months. Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup of glass with warm water is all that is required to make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and dries easily. The hair dries quickly, evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and disintegrates every particle of dirt, dandruff. Be sure your druggist has Mulsified.

ESTATE OF JESSE DANA
VALUED AT $1,122,722

Property of Realty Man Is Left to Wife; Two Sons Inherit Holdings at Her Death.

Jesse Dwight Dana, president of the Monward Realty Co., who died Nov. 14, left a personal estate of a par value of $1,122,722.42, as shown by an inventory filed yesterday in the Probate Court.

Among the property stock with a par value of $1,070,400 of the Monward Realty Co., which owns a large part of the stock of the Pierce, Boston's Ba & Kialto office buildings.

The inventory lists bonds at $46,450 and cash at $457,742. It also includes realty at Lisbon, Me., value not stated.

Some Stocks Thought Worthless. A large amount of stocks are listed as probably worthless. These include $481,000 of the Mississippi Valley Iron Co. of Delaware. It is stated that $431,000 of this stock is pledged to Edward F. Goltra as security on a note for $65,740.29, and that the State National Bank holds the remainder of it as security for $2500.

Dana, who lived at 4483 Laclede avenue, left his estate to his wife, Clara, and provided that at her death it go to their two sons, Richard and Robert. The St. Louis Union Trust Co. was named as executor. Mrs. Dana is a sister of Mrs. Edward F. Goltra, wife of the Democratic National Committeeman of Missouri.

STAINED KNIFE AND ARTICLES FOUND NEAR TRAGEDY SCENE
Fatal Burning of Two Recalled When Papers Bearing Maddox Names Are Discovered.

Prosper Fournie of Edgemont, Ill., working yesterday on the farm of Louis Guidry, Bunkum road near Woodland Park, found in a hay stack a bundle containing articles of feminine apparel, a canteen and postcards and papers bearing the names of Ira Maddox and wife, and a butcher knife on which were stains. On March 18 the charred bodies of Herman Nelson, 26 years old, and "Chief" Howell, 53 years old, were found in the debris of a shed which had burned at the roadhouse conducted by the Maddoxes near Woodland Park. While the Maddoxes were questioned in Belleville their home was robbed.

The articles were turned over today to Chief Deputy Sheriff Farrell at East St. Louis. The stains on the knife will be analyzed.

Alabamian, After 30 Days in Jail, Freed When No Further Action Is Taken.

By the Associated Press. TUSCALOOSA, Ala., April 13.—George Nichols, held here in connection with the alleged killing of Peter Mooney, at Rome, Ga., 51 years ago, was released from custody last night by order of Judge Henry B. Foster. Nichols was arrested several weeks ago on a warrant sworn out in Jefferson County, which charged that he was Hiram Nettles and that he was responsible for the death of the Rome man. At a hearing in Circuit Court here on a motion for his release under habeas corpus proceedings Judge Foster sustained the defense. The State appealed the case and Nichols was remanded to prison. Thirty days having elapsed since that hearing without further move being made by the Floyd County (Ga.) authorities, Nichols' release was ordered.

"CENSORING" OF CHRIST'S NAME OUT OF PRAYER DISCUSSED

Senator Says Clergyman Was "Reminded" That Buddhists Would Be at Arms Conference.

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 13.—The question whether the name of Christ was "censored" out of the opening prayer of the arms conference was raised again yesterday in the Senate. Asking the question and answering it himself in the affirmative, Senator Caraway, Democrat, Arkansas, produced what he said was a copy of a letter written by the Rev. W. F. Abernethy, who delivered the prayer, saying he had been "reminded" there would be Buddhists and Confucianists present and "told that it was the feeling that a simple recognition of the deity would fill the requirements."

The Arkansas Senator also recalled that Secretary Hughes had written a letter to Representative Fess, Republican, Ohio, denying flatly that there was any "censorship."

Shirt Qualities Men Look For

Patterns that are distinctive, colors that are fast, sizes that are full, tailoring that is sincere—these are the qualities that men appreciate in shirts.

All these things you will find in ready-made shirts of Fruit of the Loom—and in addition, extra long wear. The variety of colors is unusual, and all colors are guaranteed to stay fast as long as the garment lasts.

Fruit of the Loom

There are a number of other articles you can get ready-made of this time-tested fabric, famous in white for three generations and now made also in fast colors. Ask for women's porch dresses, aprons, men's and women's nightwear, and other articles made of Fruit of the Loom; and look for the woven label, because it means that if the garment is not satisfactory your money will be refunded by us.

If you have any trouble getting colored Fruit of the Loom by the yard, let us know and we will see that you are supplied. You can now identify the white goods by the name on the selvage.

Think of Your Child As a Toothless Old Woman

As you gaze into your little daughter's eyes, CAN YOU IMAGINE HER AS A TOOTHLESS OLD LADY?

Does the much MORE serious thought occur to you, that she may be ALMOST TOOTHLESS IN MIDDLE AGE, due to the present national habit of eating starchy foods?

No part of the education which you are giving her is of greater importance to this growing child than knowledge of the proper hygiene of the mouth as developed by modern dental science.

It DISSOLVES, instead of CRUDELY SCRATCHING OFF, the fatty tooth film which contains and covers bacteria. If the teeth are SCORED and SCRATCHED with grit, the grooves and thin spots are more readily attacked by these acid-producing germs of decay.

Kolynos renders POWERLESS and REMOVES hundreds of millions of these germs from the mouth, back of the teeth—on the gums, tongue and mouth membranes. It WASHES AWAY all this debris, together with the particles of fermenting food on which germ life thrives.

Not less important—it keeps the toothbrush, otherwise ALIVE with these bacteria, FREE FROM MILLIONS OF THESE DESTROYING GERMS.

Ask your dentist, when you take your little daughter to him or go yourself. Teach your daughter TO USE KOLYNOS with regularity—and you can picture her retaining her artistic facial plumpness long past middle life.

GRADUAL F AND WEST IS PRODUC

Writer for En Glimps

Special Correspondence of the Post-DISPATCH, London, ENGLAND.

—An illuminating glimpse of attainments and opinions of noted classes of India is set out in a letter to the Mail Guardian.

Notable Gathering.

For the last nine months been the only European in society of Indians, and in the days it has been my lot to meet a large house party of some 40 guests from all over India of these were persons keenly interested in the Nationalist movement. They represented many walks of life, and included number several doctors, two some lawyers, a Judge, an barrister, a poetess, a Hindu seer come down to the plain, a message to India, a dramatic movement officials, a cam maginate, a physical culturist, many ladies and children present to them. A variety of were represented—Moham Hindus, Parsees and Christians to mention some tough agents.

The general atmosphere party was an extraordinary of East and West. For lunch and dinner were taken Eastern fashion, squatting, legged, the food eaten with hands (the Himalayan sage only exception, and he ate chopsticks). On the other afternoon tea was served from silver tea sets on little tables with snow-white linen of the texture, and the guests sat in round the table were statue bronzes from Paris and Italy, a full-sized coat of the de Milo, and when it grew dark garden was illuminated with lamps. Yet even here the East below the surface.

"One afternoon I was going lawn, where tea was usually when I heard a voice calling another part of the garden. I can't go there today," said "not." I asked with some "Some Mohammedan ladies come to tea today and they Purdah." Then I realized that the ladies were sitting down taking tea in another part of garden.

"One of the most striking guests was an elderly Moham who was accompanied by his two daughters. He is an imposing figure with a face though powerful, a strong nose and white hair and long. He is a man of Western education, speaking English and French, and has served for many years a Judge in a native state and been the friend and confidant of Rajah.

Discarded Finery.

"A couple of years ago he under Gandhi's influence and converted by him to the National movement. As a consequence given up all his fine clothing, wears simple homespun, and political activities has lost his erament pension. One evening came into the drawing room, tired him in eager conversation another man as interesting as self. The latter was for 10 years missionary in the Brahmo movement (a sort of Hindu Unitarianism), but had left this Christian Church. I joined to them, and listened to the oration, which I record in case it is not in letter.

"Pooh! miracles! the old man was saying; 'the miracle of Christ is merely legends that grown around his name and being. Take the story of the five and two fishes; everyone knows in the East bread is used symbol for wisdom, the staff of spiritual life. The ignorant of the Gospel incidents of the symbol with the fact.'

"Shortly after this we joined by one of his daughters, dark, handsome young lady with a vigorous character and a sonate convictions. The disc had drifted to a comparison of the characters of Mohammed and Christ.

Discussion on Love.

"You must admit," said the man, "that the character of man displays greater love than the four Prophet."

"The girl's dark eyes flashed. 'I don't think it's at all the reformed. People are always saying that Jesus was more loving than Mohammed. It is because they understand. The love of Jesus of a different kind; it was the tender love of a mother; Mohammed's was the strong, virile, fierce love of a father.'

"But look at Christ's denunciation of the Pharisees," was the reply. "His love combined the tend of a mother's and the strength of a father's."

"Now we were joined by the mother. 'What are you doing to me?' she asked.

"Which is the greater—a mother's or a father's?" she asked.

"Oh, a mother's, of course," the mother said, "but the father is a more powerful force."

"Oh, yes," the father said, "but the mother is a more powerful force."

Why have a poor skin?

If you have a poor skin, and are discouraged in your efforts to improve it—try Lifebuoy.

Nine times out of ten, a rough, oily, muddy, dry, or lifeless skin is due to one cause—clogged, inactive pores.

Creams and ordinary oil soaps do not permanently help such conditions. They only clog the pores still further.

Lifebuoy's health principle cleans those pores from top to bottom—wakes the cells to life—starts a healthy circulation.

And Lifebuoy's pure palm and coconut oils smooth and soften the awakened skin.

In a very few weeks the result will delight you—and everyone that cares for you.

CITY COURT SELF SUSTAINING FOR THIRD CONSECUTIVE YEAR

Report to Mayor Shows $57,047 in Fines Were Collected Last Year, Leaving Surplus of $31,727.

For the third consecutive year the City Police Court has been self-sustaining. Thomas S. Hawk, clerk of the court, today submitted to the Mayor his report for the fiscal year ending April 10, showing $57,047 collected in fines and costs, leaving a surplus of $31,727 over the $25,320 appropriated by the city for expenses of the court for the year.

The finding of traffic law violators, who are almost always able to pay, is attributed by Hawk as the reason for the increase in the court's revenue. Until recent years a majority of the cases resulted from peace disturbance charges or drinking rows, and frequently the participants had to go to the workhouse or have their fines stayed, because they were unable to meet them.

In the fiscal year just ended Judge Homer, in City Court No. 1, collected $24,559.50 in fines. He tried 15,928 cases, of which 877 were appealed. The previous year, in which Judge Ittner occupied the bench for seven months, $45,813 was collected, 16,967 cases tried and 2010 cases appealed. In City Court No. 2 Judge Mix tried 13,493 cases, of which 494 were appealed, and collected $22,457.50. Last year he turned $18,205.50 into the city treasury, as a result of the 10,412 cases tried. Appeals from his decision in that year were 422.

ADMINISTRATION IS CREDITED WITH COINING "NEW WORDS"

President Is Criticized for Purchase of New Launch. When King George Has Dispensed With His.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—These are political field days in Congress.

"I think this administration," said Senator Caraway of Arkansas yesterday, "will be credited with the coining of two words—'Newberryizing' and 'Hardingizing'." Senator Reed of Missouri, "I thought the Senator was going to say that 'Newberryizing' consisted in buying a seat in the Senate, and 'Hardingizing' consisted in compelling the Republicans to vote to retain him in his seat."

"I think that is correct," said Caraway. The President's new launch, reported to have cost $45,000, came in for criticism. Senator Harwood of Mississippi remarked that because of the general depression in England, King George has dispensed with his launch.

This reminded Senator Reed that he had read an article that the Queen of England had reduced her dress bill to $1500 a year, and even resorted to having her dresses made over and some of them sewed.

"I hope that George Harvey does not hear that," said Caraway, "for he will cut the society of the Queen if he knows it. When George gets on his knee branches he would not associate with a lady who had worn a second-hand dress, I know."

LICENSE TO WED IS ISSUED TO MRS. FLORENCE CASHEL

A marriage license was obtained yesterday in East St. Louis by Harold Schuchman, 23 years old, of 927 Warren street, St. Louis, and Mrs. Florence Caschel, 21, of 1210 Cleveland avenue, East St. Louis.

Mrs. Caschel is the widow of Charles P. Caschel, former Sheriff of St. Clair County, who was shot by his son, George J. Caschel, at his home, 423 North Tenth street, East St. Louis, Jan. 11, 1921, and died a few days later at a hospital. The son, who said he fired the shot when his father undertook to chastise him for refusing to recognize the authority of his young stepmother, was not indicted.

Mrs. Caschel lived until recently at the Caschel home on North Tenth street. In expectation of remarriage, she purchased the Cleveland avenue house. She was not at home today. Neighbors said she told them she was married yesterday. Schuchman is a Kroger branch store manager.

RAILROADS EARNED $47,762,600 IN FEBRUARY, REPORT POINTS OUT

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 13.—Railroads in the United States—exclusive of lines with less than $1,000,000 in gross revenue—earned during February, $47,762,600, according to Interstate Commerce Commission reports compiled by the Association of Railway Executives. There was an operation deficit of $5,178,867 during the same month in 1931. The February earnings indicate an annual return rate of 4.57 per cent on the property investment.

Revenues for the month amounted to $401,328,000, or 1.3 per cent less than a year ago, but operating expenses amounted to $224,425,000, 15.6 per cent less. Instancing decreases in freight rates during the year, the association's statement said the roads handled during the month 14 per cent more traffic than a year ago, but receipts lessened.

BEER BILL INTRODUCED IN HOUSE

By the Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 13.—Voters would receive an opportunity under a bill introduced yesterday by Representative Hill, Republican, Maryland, to determine at the polls next November whether the manufacture and sale of 2.75 per cent beer should be permitted in their congressional districts. The bill would provide a tax of 20 cents a gallon on beer. This levy, Hill estimated, would produce $100,000,000 annually in revenue.

STILLMAN DIVORCE HEARING NEAR END

Father of Indian Guide and Several Servants Questioned in Case at Montreal.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
MONTREAL, April 13.—Indications are that the Stillman divorce hearing will be completed this evening.

Louis Beauvais, father of Fred Beauvais, Indian guide named in the case, who was cross-examined yesterday by Col. Hand, corroborated the testimony given by his wife
Tuesday, relating to incidents of Mrs.
Stillman's visit to the Blackburn house. A witness at the New York hearing stated he had peered into Mrs. Stillman's room through a crack in the roller shade and saw her with Fred Beauvais. Mrs. Beauvais swore there were no blinds on the windows at the Blackburn house.

William Laroque and his 15-year-old son, Homer, corroborated the testimony that the scaffolding on which the Stillman witnesses are alleged to have seen Beauvais and Mrs.
Stillman together, had been removed before Mrs. Stillman arrived at Grand Anse.

Testimony of Servants.
Marie, Lizzie and Tina (now Mrs.
Schenelle) Wilson, who worked at Grand Anse and at the Three Rivers
Hotel, testified that one of Stillman's Canadian lawyers offered them money and fine clothes if they would go to New York and help Stillman in his case. The supervisor of the Three Rivers Hotel confirmed the girls' stories.

Elizabeth Wilson of Three Rivers, Quebec, said she refused the lawyer's offer and told him she had not seen Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais mis-conducting themselves. She was corroborated by three others who said they had overheard the conversation. Mrs. Tina Wilson Chenille, Mary Wilson and Mrs. Esther St. Cyr, Joseph Blackburn testified that J.
Albert Lafontaine, alleged agent for Stillman, had told him in 1920 that if he could say he had seen wrongful conduct by Mrs. Stillman and Beauvais "it would surely be a great favor to Mrs. Stillman, because if the divorce went through, she could marry Beauvais."

Father of Guide Approached.
Louis Beauvais said that Lafontaine spoke to him in a similar way.
He did not report having been told that Mrs. Stillman would appreciate such testimony against her, but he did say that Lafontaine spoke about how much money he son, Ed, would get possession of by marrying Mrs. Stillman. Mrs. Blackburn and the elder Beauvais said they told Lafontaine they knew of nothing against Mrs. Stillman.

The Beauvais family, which holds the center of the stage, has mustered almost its full complement to attend the hearing. Louis Beauvais, like his younger child, suggests little of the Aquiline stoic. The majority of the witnesses are Indians or of Indian ancestry. They seem to take easily to the long delays, waiting for their turns in the witness stand.
They tell their stories simply and unemotionally.

"GET 'MATRIMONIAL FEVER' WHEN I DRINK," MAN TELLS COURT

New Yorker With Two Wives Escapes From When Judge Says

He Has "50-50 Mentality" way.
NEW YORK, April 13.—Alleged by psychologists at Bellevue Hospital to have a "50-50 mentality," Harry
A. Warren yesterday escaped a five-year sentence for bigamy when wife
No. 1 made a strong plea for him and he had told the Court he was intoxicated when he married the second time. He also said that when he was intoxicated he got "matrimonial fever."

Both wives were in Bronx County Court when Warren came up for sentence after having pleaded guilty.

Wife No. 1—Mrs. Caroline Laney Warren—told Judge Gibbs she and her 9-year-old son loved the prisoner, that she had forgiven his touch of "fever" and that she wanted him home.

Wife No. 2—Mrs. Dorothy de Arrigny Warren—told the Court that she wanted him to pass the rest of his days in jail. She said she did not know of wife No. 1 until she met her at a house party. Warren left with No. 1 on his arm.

BRIDE OF ROGER SUDREAU SAYS SHE WILL NEVER RETURN TO HIM

PARIS, April 13.—Roger Su-dreau's bride, formerly Jacqueline Lebaudy, who fled from him a fortnight ago with her mother, the widow of Jacques Lebaudy, "Emperor of the Sahara," sent this message to the Post-Dispatch correspondent by an intimate friend yesterday:

"I left Roger Sudreau entirely of my own free will and I have made up my mind never to return to him.
It is not true that I was ever madly in love with Roger, as he is reported to have declared. No influence whatever is being exercised over me in this final decision."

The same friend said positively that the marriage was a "white marriage." Jacqueline is in excellent health and her self-enforced seclusion has had no effect on her naturally high spirits and merry disposition.

The hiding place of the Lebaudys is jealously guarded. Samuel Archibold, an American attorney, who has now taken charge of their interests, refused to reveal their whereabouts, saying that only Mme. Sudreau's closest confidants have seen her since her retirement.

REPUBLICAN STATE OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES HOLD DINNER

Affair at Jefferson City Arranged For by Governor—Campaign Plans Discussed.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, April 12.—
Gov. Hyde and 30 other Republican State officials and employees had a political dinner last night at the Central Hotel, at which means for disseminating political propaganda and raising funds for it were discussed.
The dinner was arranged by the Governor, but each guest paid for his own dinner. Auditor Hackmann was the only State official who did not attend. He refused today to tell why.

The elective officials were chosen to serve with a committee of five from the executive departments to employ a publicity man and arrange an organization to co-operate with the Republican State Committee in an effort to elect a Republican majority in both branches of the Legislature.

The meeting was the beginning of steps to compose differences which have existed between the Governor and Secretary of State Decker, Attorney-General Barrett, Treasurer Thompson and Auditor Hackmann, since early in the 1931 session of the Legislature, when the Governor sought to have passed bills which would transfer much of the patronage of the other State officials to himself. Some of the bills were defeated and the operation of others was suspended under the referendum section of the Constitution.

TEAR BOMBS ARE ADDED TO EQUIPMENT OF POLICE HERE

Gas Is Distributed in Districts, but No Special Squad Will Be Provided for Its Use.

The "tear bomb" has been added to the equipment of police riders.
Chief O'Brien, after witnessing a demonstration of the bomb, put a sample one in the drawer of his desk and has asked permission of the board to order 24 others to be distributed around the various districts to be used in emergencies.

The Chief believes they may save the lives of policemen in capturing fugitives who attempt to barricade themselves, and that they can also be used effectively in riots. Other large cities have special squads to handle this part of the equipment, but the emergency here, the Chief says, only arises once in a long time and there is no necessity for a special squad, he thinks.

The bomb contains a liquid gas, the fumes of which, while not destructive, irritate the nose and eyes and effect inhalation to such an extent that persons in a room into which the bomb is thrown, threatened with suffocation, crave air and lose no time in opening doors and windows. The fumes make the eyes water, hence the name, "tear bomb."

ATTORNEY FOUND GUILTY OF PART IN PRISON FORGERY CASE

By the Associated Press.
TOPEKA, Kan., April 12.—E. M.
Van Meter, an attorney, was found guilty in Federal Court here yesterday in connection with an alleged conspiracy at the Federal prison at Leavenworth, Kan., whereby more than 100 blank checks were stolen by convicts from the office of Warden W. I. Biddle, and cashed over his forged name. Van Meter, it was charged, was the ringleader of the conspiracy. His conviction came after several alleged co-conspirtors, two of them convicts, turned State's evidence, and he was sentenced to two years' imprisonment and fined $10,000.

A. C. Cox, a codefendant with Van Meter, who has two years more to serve on his prison sentence, was found not guilty by the jury. He maintained that he knew about the conspiracy but took no part in it, other than introducing Van Meter to the three other men, Clyde Martindale, convict, received a sentence of a year and six months; Earl Hull, convict, a year and a day, and Herold Hall, an "outside accomplice," who confessed that he aided Van Meter in cashing the prison checks.
In various cities, was sentenced to a year and a day.
It was estimated that at least $10,000 in bogus checks was cashed.

BALFOUR AVOIDED ACCEPTANCE OF TITLE FOR MANY YEARS

Before he might be Garter, However, Without knowing It Carried Title and Then Relented.
By the Associated Press.

LONDON, April 23.—Formal acceptance of the Garter knighthood was made yesterday that an Earldom had been conferred on Sir Arthur James Balfour, former Premier and at present Lord President of the Council.

The announcement confirmed what had been unofficially known for some time. Throughout his political career he had steadily set his face against the acceptance of any title, and accordingly, when offered him on his return from the Washington armament conference. Then he accepted the Order of the Garter, relinquished his title, and was created Knight and the title "Sir" Balfour at last relented, however, and now goes to the more dignified atmosphere of the title of Earl Balfour of Whittingham.

VALUE OF COTTON LINTERS PULP IN PAPER MAKING DISCUSSED

Residue Is Said to Compare Favorably With Pulp Made From Rags.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The value of cotton linters pulp in the manufacture of paper was emphasized yesterday by S. E. Seaman of Hopewell, Va., in an address before the technical association of pulp and paper industry, which is in convention here with various other paper-making organizations.

He explained that the lint from which the pulp is made is the residue of lint that clings to cotton seed after the usual ginning process and that 250,000 tons of it are available from the 1000 cottonseed oil mills in the country.

Tests made with this pulp, he said, have been found to compare favorably with the pulp made from rags and that when used in the preparation of 25 per cent with new rags, would save the manufacturers from 5 to 10 cents a pound on fine paper.

'CHINATOWN GERTIE' ANECDOTES DRAW LAUGHS AT HER FUNERAL

Strangers at Underworld Services, However, Who Didn't Show Respect Were Thrown Out.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The body of Gertrude Merritt, known to the lowly of New York's East Side simply as "Chinatown Gertie," was buried today in Brooklyn. For years an outcast in the streets and alleys of the Bowery, when that thoroughfare was the synonym of crime and degradation, she became almost in a single night a ministering angel to the poor and the erring.

Funeral services for the woman were held last night in the little chapel of the midnight mission of the rescue society in Doyers street, the heart of Chinatown.

Men and women who knew her laughed as a score of speakers, hardened to the ways of the underworld, told stories of "Chinatown Gertie."

Tourists who had gone to see Chinatown tried to get into the chapel, but only those who were respectful were permitted to enter. Those who did not show a real sense of propriety were cast into the street, and a policeman, standing near, was always looking the other way when this occurred.

It was a strange funeral to many of the strangers who witnessed it. But it was a sinning, loving, remembering throng that attended.

PRESBYTERY ISSUES DRY CALL

Southern Illinois Body Urges All to Stand by 18th Amendment.
A resolution urging all members to stand fast by the eighteenth amendment and the cause of temperance at a time when the forces of evil are bending their diabolical energies to break down the great cause of righteousness," was passed yesterday at the closing sessions of the Southern Illinois Presbytery at the United Presbyterian Church, at the Gibson Heights United Presbyterian Church.

The Rev. Dr. A. M. Campbell was re-elected moderator of the Presbytery, and the Rev. J. F. Le Clere was

Bell Ringers' Troupe Today
Services for Martin Freeberthysen,
Who Toured America in '40s,
Are Held.
The funeral of Martin Freeberthysen,
87 years old, formerly of St.
Louis, the last of the famous troupe
of Swiss bell ringers which toured America in the late forties and early fifties, was held today from the home of his nephew, Robert Mitzel-feld, 2241 Regal place. Burial followed in St. Paul's Cemetery. Free-berthysen died Monday at his home in Pinckneyville, Ill., from inirmi-ties of age.
troupe, which was organized and led by Freeberthysen's father, Conrad Freeberthysen, and consisted of Martin, his two brothers and four others, as bell ringers, assisted by his three sisters as singers, came to America in 1848, and made their first appearance in St. Louis in 1855.
They presented a novelty act, in which they played music on bells, sea-shells and even on policemen's
clubs.
Under the direction of P. T. Barnum they made five tours of the United States, and achieved great popularity. They were invited to play before Martin Van Buren, then ex-President, who presented the elder Freeberthysen, as leader, with a pair of gold spectacles.
After the disbanding of the troupe
Martin Freeberthysen sold his set of bells and devoted himself to other instruments. His favorite was the violin, but he could perform with ease on many other instruments,
including the piano, clarinet, flute,
guitar and all kinds of horns.
He retired to Dubuque, Ia., with his father. Later the family moved to St. Louis, where the father, Conrad Freeberthysen, died in 1884.
Martin Freeberthysen moved to Pinckneyville seven years ago. He was unmarried, and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Wheeler of 1407
North Sarah street, who formerly
sang with the troupe.

TWO HUSBANDS CLAIMED BY WOMAN IN WIFE BEATING CASE
Mrs. Dorothy Fox Says She Ran
Away From First and Married
Only Man She Ever Loved.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 12.—
When Dorothy King, formerly Fox,
ling against her husband, Elmer Fox,
formerly of St. Louis, on a charge of wife-beating, admitted she had married Roger Cartwright, a soldier,
whom she met at Fort Russell, Wyo.,
in November, and said "Fox may be my real husband by law, but Cartwright is my husband by love." City Judge Fleming admitted he didn't know what to do with her.
Mrs. Fox's admission was the first that Fox or her mother, Mrs. Anna Kingston, had heard of the second husband. Mrs. Fox said she married Fox at 17 because her mother wished
it. "But I never loved him, and so I left him and went to Wyoming
where I met the only man I ever loved, and married him." She said she had come home at her mother's invitation to find Fox here, and that his money had sold for the trip. She claimed Fox struck her when she used rouge, going out Tuesday night.

Mrs. Dorothy Fox Says She Ran
Away From First and Married
Only Man She Ever Loved.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 12.—
When Dorothy King, formerly Fox,
ling against her husband, Elmer Fox,
formerly of St. Louis, on a charge
of wife-beating, admitted she had married Roger Cartwright, a soldier,
whom she met at Fort Russell, Wyo.,
in November, and said "Fox may be
my real husband by law, but Cartwright is my husband by love." City Judge Fleming admitted he didn't know what to do with her.
Mrs. Fox's admission was the first
that Fox or her mother, Mrs. Anna
Kingston, had heard of the second husband. Mrs. Fox said she married Fox at 17 because her mother wished
it. "But I never loved him, and so I left him and went to Wyoming
where I met the only man I ever
loved, and married him." She said she had come home at her mother's invitation to find Fox here, and that his money had sold for the trip. She claimed Fox struck her when she

Who Toured America in '40s,
Are Held.
The funeral of Martin Freeberthysen,
87 years old, formerly of St.
Louis, the last of the famous troupe
of Swiss bell ringers which toured America in the late forties and early fifties, was held today from the home of his nephew, Robert Mitzel-
feld, 2241 Regal place. Burial followed in St. Paul's Cemetery. Free-
berthysen died Monday at his home
in Pinckneyville, Ill., from inirmi-
ties of age.
troupe, which was organized and led by Freeberthysen's father, Conrad Freeberthysen, and consisted of Martin, his two brothers and four others, as bell ringers, assisted by his three sisters as singers, came to America in 1848, and made their first appearance in St. Louis in 1855.
They presented a novelty act, in which they played music on bells,
sea-shells and even on policemen's
clubs.
Under the direction of P. T. Barnum they made five tours of the United States, and achieved great popularity. They were invited to play before Martin Van Buren, then
ex-President, who presented the elder Freeberthysen, as leader, with a pair of gold spectacles.
After the disbanding of the troupe
Martin Freeberthysen sold his set of
bells and devoted himself to other instruments. His favorite was the violin, but he could perform with ease on many other instruments,
including the piano, clarinet, flute,
guitar and all kinds of horns.
He retired to Dubuque, Ia., with his father. Later the family moved to St. Louis, where the father, Conrad Freeberthysen, died in 1884.
Martin Freeberthysen moved to Pinckneyville seven years ago. He was unmarried, and is survived by a sister, Mrs. Mary Wheeler of 1407
North Sarah street, who formerly
sang with the troupe.

CONGRESS' WORK PILING UP LIKE AN ALL SUMMER'S JOB

Jam Coming in Senate and the Outlook for an Adjournment Seems to Be Doubtful.

By DAVID LAWRENCE,
A Special Washington Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, April 12.—The resurrection of the Fordney tariff bill at a time when there is an intense controversy about nearly every other measure of importance has made the outlook for an adjournment of Congress this summer very doubtful.

The jam is coming in the Senate. If, indeed, it is not already here. The demand that the Republican party keep its campaign pledge, and enact a tariff law, will not be ignored by the party chieftains this time. They will create a tariff. But it takes time—lots of it, maybe all summer and a part of the fall.

What becomes of the bonus, of the army and navy appropriation bills, the administration's merchant marine program and the regular routine of appropriation bills which are more than ever important this year because of the limited funds available under the budget system?

Want Bonus Agreement.

Advocates of the bonus are trying to get an agreement with the champions of the tariff permitting the bonus to be sandwiched in between the days on which the tariff debate will rise and fall in public interest. Anticipating a lull now and then, the bonus supporters want to bring the bonus to a vote and pass the problem on to the President. But when it comes to lengthy debate the tariff will be dwarfed into insignificance alongside the pros and cons of the bonus, especially when means of raising revenue are discussed.

And if the advocates of a bonus imagine they will be able to get it through the Senate without much debate or without executive intervention, they are due for a surprise. For example, the President is being urged to avoid a veto. He is being advised that if the bonus gets to a vote and an overwhelming number of Senators become committed to it, the passage of the bill over his veto will be inevitable.

Opponents of Bonus.

The opponents of the bonus, therefore, are hoping Mr. Harding personally will address the Senate as he did a year ago and that the only vote that will be taken will be the one to lay the compensation feature on the table, thus postponing action until the money to pay it actually is in sight.

If Mr. Harding makes a personal fight for the postponement of the bonus, he can command much more support than if he has had to veto the bill and depend upon his veto message to act as a deterrent against passage by a subsequent two-thirds vote over the veto.

Fight Over the Navy.

Aside from the struggle which is inevitable over the bonus and the tariff, the size of the army and navy has produced such differences of opinion among members of both political parties that lengthy debate is inescapable. The navy is making a fight for its life. The entire influence of the administration is being brought to bear to prevent what is being characterized by officials as "the murder of the United States navy." Congress is inclined to cut far below the safety point, as viewed by the administration, and the breaking up of party lines shows how difficult it is going to be for the President to steer administration measures through this Congress.

Nothing perhaps is closer to Mr. Harding's heart than the merchant marine bill. He regards it as the greatest opportunity for America since the Civil War. He thinks it

Increases the action of the intestines

Hundreds of men and women have already found freedom from laxatives by eating Fleischmann's fresh yeast.

Doctors are now agreed that proper elimination of waste matter should be brought about by food. One doctor comes right out and states plainly that the indiscriminate use of cathartics is one of the causes of constipation.

Physicians all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's fresh yeast because it is a fresh food, rich in those elements which keep the intestines healthy. In one series of tested cases, normal functions were restored in from 3 days to 5 weeks.

Try it out for yourself. Begin today by adding 2 or 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast to your everyday diet. Keep it up and see how normally and regularly your intestines act. Be sure it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

is absolutely related to American prosperity. The bill will get through the House all right, but one is not so sure about passage by the Senate at this session.

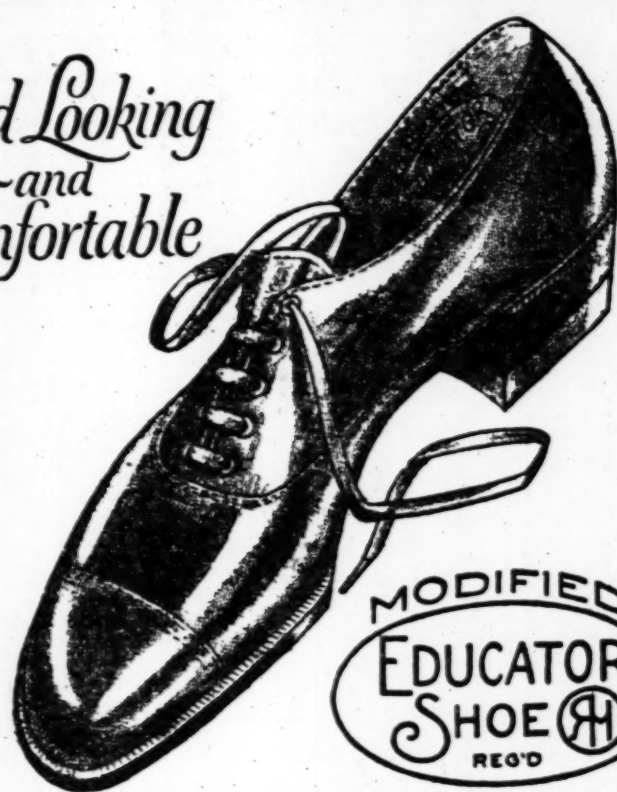

The tariff debate will upset all calculations. World economic conditions arise again to plague the administration. The truth is, there is not as much enthusiasm for a tariff law as at the time the 1920 campaign was in full swing. If, however, the Senate provision for elasticity is retained, the administration will not regard the tariff law as so troublesome, after all.

Why Take Chances and Experiment?—Don't be Misled!

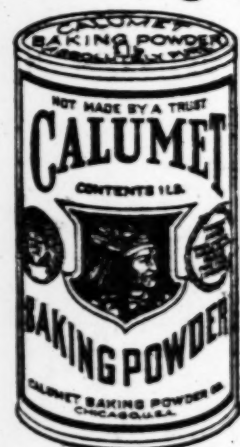

Some baking powder firms try to exist on the reputation of others by making the claim that their powder is just as good.

There is nothing so cheap as imitations. These Baking Powders that are represented as "just as good" you will find have little or no sale compared with Calumet. They may offer an inducement, such as a Cook Book or some trinket to get you to take a can or two of their goods.

Be careful and don't be deceived into buying brands of Baking Powder that have not been successful.

CALUMET Baking Powder

has always given satisfaction. It is made in the largest and finest baking powder plant in the world, and is the largest selling brand in the world.

Why take chances and experiment? When you use Calumet you are always sure there will be no failures—no waste of time and materials—and every time you put a baking into the oven it will come out light as down, pure, and uniformly raised.

Radio is truly "The Newest Marvel of This Marvelous Age." You can sit at home and listen to informative, instructive and entertaining programs broadcast through the air. You can receive bulletins, vocal and instrumental concerts, weather forecasts, market reports, time signals, etc.

Description of the Free "Jewel" Radiophone Receiving Set

No taps, continuous wave length variation. Equipped with tuning coil of latest and most scientific design. Good substantial cabinet, bakelite panel, bevel and graduated dial, sensitive and permanent crystal adjustment. No batteries required and no maintenance cost. Everything complete.

The head set consists of two receiving phones, 2400 ohm resistance, navy type.

Quite as important as the tuning coil are the phones. Those with the "Jewel" are exceptionally sensitive, being the same make as those in use in the Post-Dispatch station K S D for receiving.

The "Jewel" is rated as a 50-mile instrument, and under favorable atmospheric conditions will receive radio signals from that distance. It is only recommended, however, at this time of the year, for St. Louis and suburbs. Tests have shown that the "Jewel" picks up Post-Dispatch radio programs clearly and distinctly.

Complete instructions for installation and operation with each set. Briefly, it is the finest and most sensitive and compact Radiophone of its type.

The outfit, as we will deliver it to you, will include tuning coil in handsome, polished cabinet, head set, consisting of two receiving phones and instructions. It will not include wire or insulation for antenna or "ground"—which may be obtained at nominal cost.

News of the Business World

By Wire to the Post-Dispatch

CLEVELAND, O.—Steel mills, motor accessory plants and automobile factories in this district report a steady increase in business as a result of the growing demand for automobiles. Steel men, however, are anxious over the coal strike situation and fear present business expansion may be checked as a result of fuel shortage.

Operations at the Chandler and Cleveland automobile plants are reported on the up trend, and while officials decline to give definite figures, the fact that the Fisher Body Co. of Ohio, which supplies enclosed bodies for the Cleveland, Chandler and Chevrolet cars, is working to capacity, is evidence that those local companies are building a large number of cars.

The Fisher Body Co., which has a million square feet of floor space in its own plant, has just leased the factory of the Briggs Body Co. to take care of this rush of business. The Stearns Automobile Co. is working overtime in its department and has more orders on its books than at this time last year. This company will build an addition to its plant this spring, chiefly for storage purposes.

The price of gasoline was advanced 1 cent a gallon here today, making it 24 cents at filling stations.

NORTHWEST CONDITIONS.

SEATTLE, Wash.—The Gulf separating bad times from good in the lumber industry has been crossed apparently safely. The Pacific Northwest, Washington and Oregon mills today are operating at less than 6 per cent below normal production. The official statement of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association, just issued for the week ending last Saturday, shows new business to be 12 per cent above production and shipments 17 per cent below new business. One hundred and twenty-nine mills reported to the association that they had manufactured 75,000,000 feet of lumber, about 87,000,000 and shipped 23,000,000, nearly 40 per cent of all new business booked is for water delivery.

Nonunion coal mines in Western Washington are producing 3700 tons of coal a day and are within 20 per cent of normal output, employing 1400 men. About 2400 union men have been out since April 1.

Clear, warm weather in the last week has stimulated retail merchandising. Department stores are showing more activity than for several years past.

The jewelry trade has been slow, reflecting the fact that the public buying trend is toward necessities rather than luxuries. The Siberian fur trade is flourishing with prices strong.

CROPS REGARDED SAFE. KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Fear of damage to crops from cold weather and floods has been relieved by a return of clear, warm weather in this district. Farmers here are subdividing and the snowmelt in Western Kansas earlier in the week did not reach eastward to the fruit belt. Some localities suffered from frosts of a few days, but the only general effect has been a delay in spring plowing. Due to the condition of the ground, three more days of warm weather will remedy this.

While conditions are on the up grade in this territory and confidence is growing steadily, actual progress is slow. Retailers particularly are complaining over the smallness of the Easter trade. This has been due, it is thought, largely to the weather conditions.

Prospects for fruit crops in the Arkansas Valley have not been so promising for several seasons. The wheat acreage in Kansas this year will be far less than usual. Gasoline has advanced another cent a gallon here this week.

Lead and zinc ores are advancing and a number of mines in the tri-state field, which have been closed down, will be reopened shortly.

GENERAL TOPICS. PHILADELPHIA.—Sentiment has been improved greatly in this community by the recovery in the market value of local securities. In this district hundreds of millions of dollars are invested in the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Reading, the Lehigh Valley, Philadelphia Electric, Rapid Transit, United Gas Improvement, Lehigh Coal and Navigation, Baldwin Locomotive, Cramp Shipbuilding, Midvale Steel and other local companies. The advance in prices of securities of these companies, with better prospects for resumption of business which have been passed or out, has affected business very favorably in general.

NEW YORK.—It is estimated by shipping men that 220,000 emigrants will arrive in the United States this year, principally from European countries. At an average rate of $10 for each passage, their arrival is expected to yield approximately $2,200,000 to shipping companies. American lines hope to obtain about half this business.

CHICAGO.—Building operations are active here and at adjoining towns. There are indications that rents will begin to decline about May 1.

CHICAGO.—Packer hides are going up and all classes of leather are expected to enjoy better business soon. There are signs of reviving export demand, but it is the domestic market for patent leather shoes which is boosting the trade just now.

PHILADELPHIA.—Leather suitable for making belting is in strong demand and this is taken as an indication of resumption of activity at industrial plants.

GLOVES. NEW YORK.—Well informed men in the glove business here predict that men's gloves for men for next fall will be sold at prices well under Principals of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra arriving in Jackson, Miss., on their recent tour of the South. Left to right: Frederick Fisher, assistant conductor; Arthur J. Gaines, manager; Mrs. Margaret Namara, soprano soloist; Mrs. N. N. Banks, Mrs. Namara's mother; and Rudolph Ganz, conductor. Back of the party is Morris Brooks, Pullman porter, known as "the guardian angel," who made the entire trip with the orchestra.

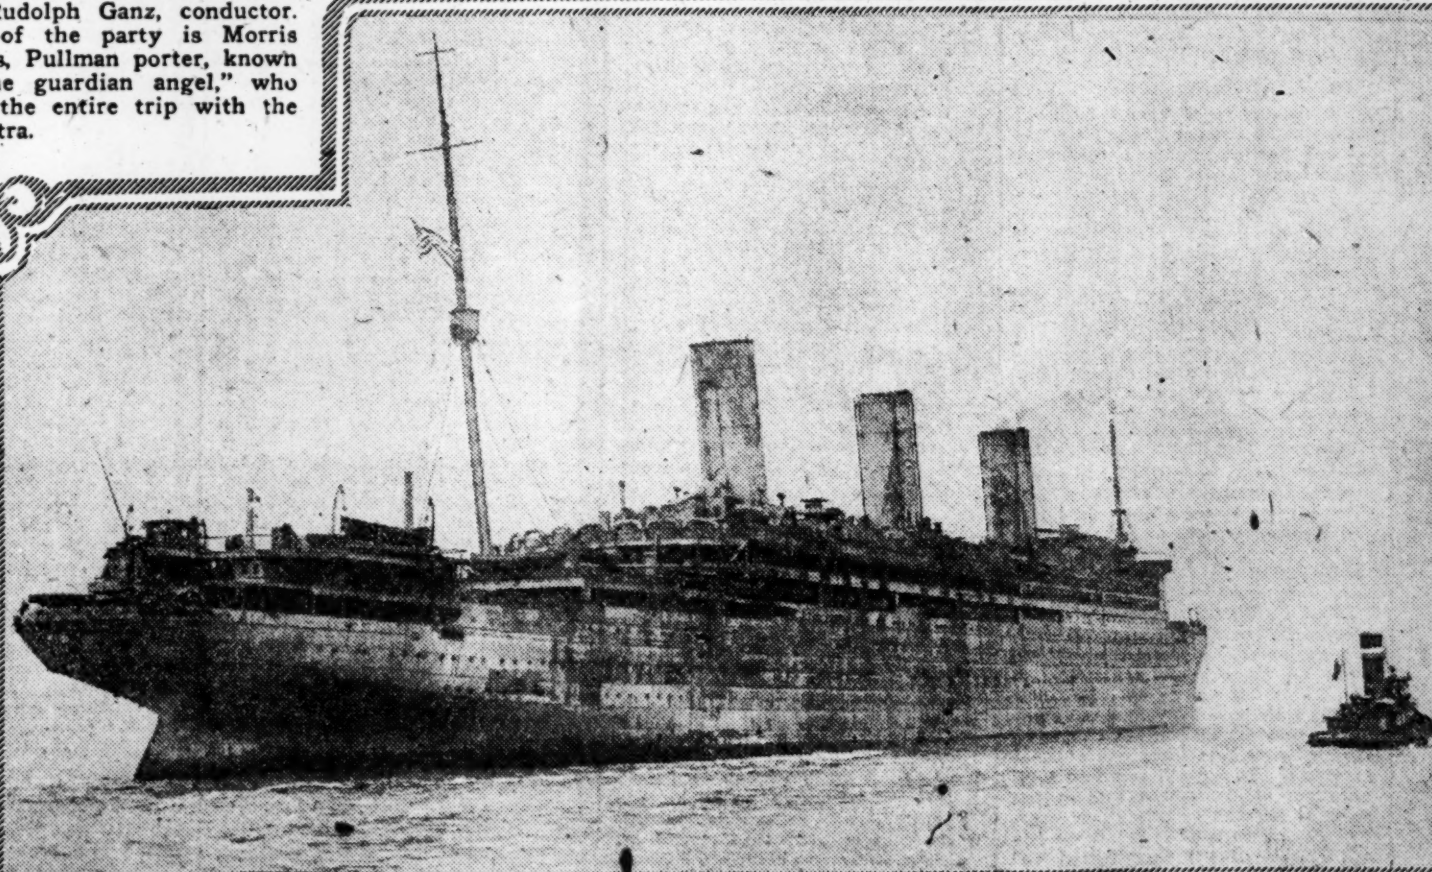

Famed Japanese beauty, Kikuko Terao ("Little Chrysanthemum") weds Prof. T. Conroy, with whom she fell in love while taking English from him at Keio University, Tokio.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Shepard, walking on Fifth avenue with their three adopted children. Mrs. Shepard was Miss Helen Gould and Mr. Shepard formerly was vice president of the Missouri Pacific Railroad, stationed in St. Louis.

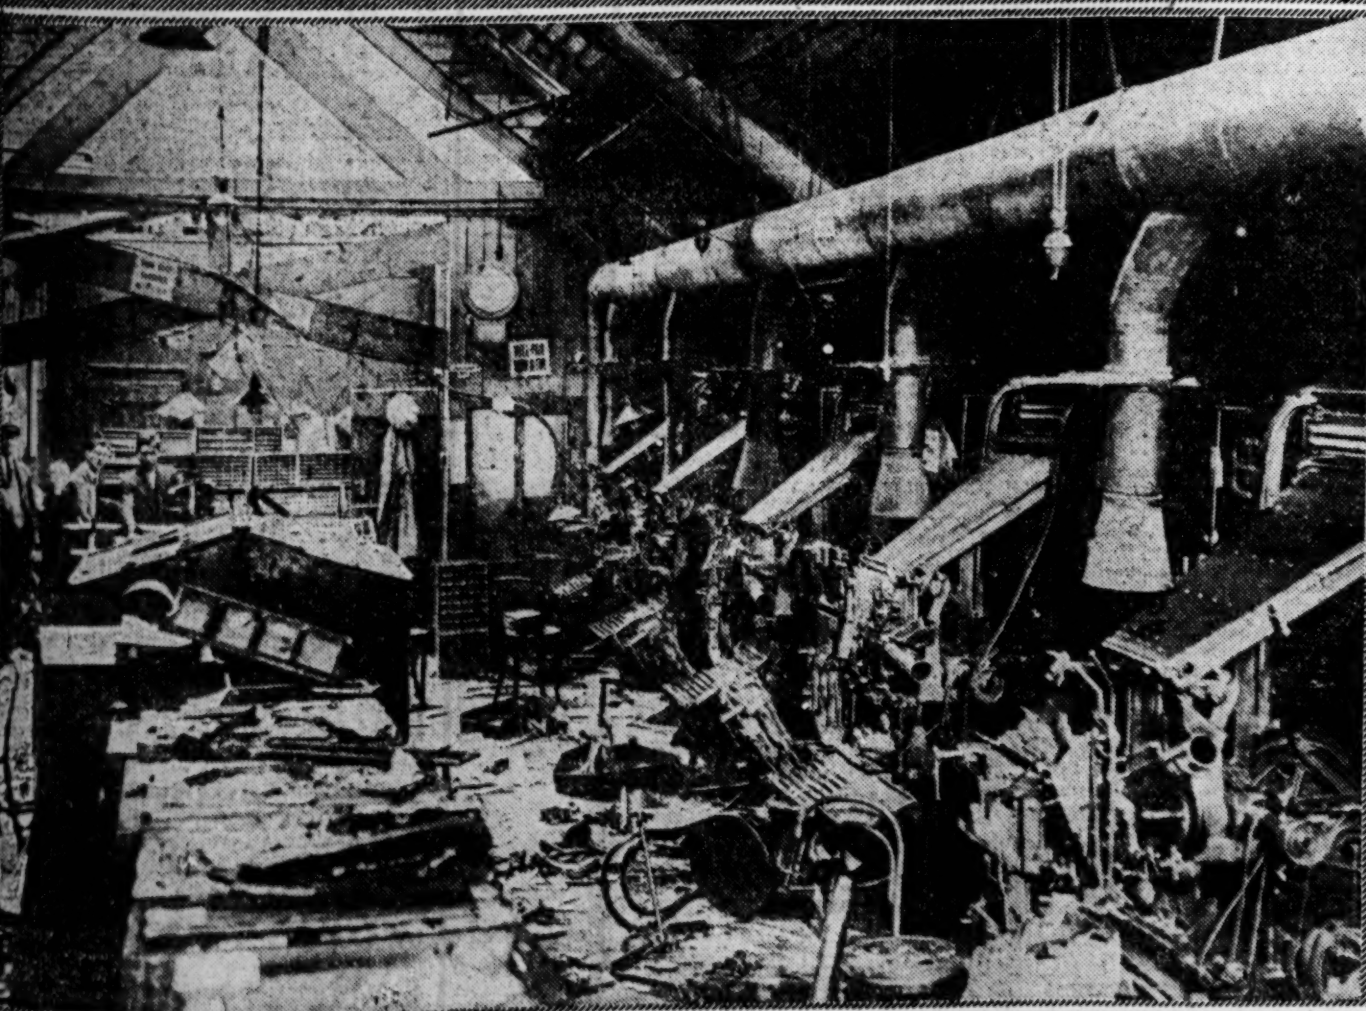

A striking photographic study of Conan Doyle, celebrated English novelist, who has come to America to lecture on spiritualism.

The gigantic steamship Leviathan leaving New York Harbor for Newport News, Va., where she will be conditioned for transatlantic passenger service under the U. S. Shipping Board.

The bride of Oliver Morosco, theatrical magnate, who was recently divorced by his first wife. The new wife was Miss Selma Paley, principal in one of his musical comedies.

How the composing room of the Dublin Freeman's Journal looked when De Valera's "die-hard" followers finished wrecking it a few days ago. The type cases were overthrown and smashed and the type-setting machines were broken up.

A striking evidence of the relation of river traffic to the transportation economy of the country. A gigantic tow of steel products from the Jones & Laughlin mill in Pittsburgh, going down the Ohio and up to St. Louis at a much lower rate than the shipment could be made by railroad.

THE COST OF ENTERTAINING ST. LOUIS GIRLS IS IT TOO HIGH?

BELIEVES IN LOVE

To the Editor of the Women's Page.
Strindberg's woman—the one who exists in the concept outlined in his last effusion—is a paradox. She's a bird! She is very shrewd, but hasn't sense enough to realize that it is impossible to ensnare a real human by spending her own money on him.

At that, Strindberg is right in many respects. The "more practical sex" is becoming too obvious in its grim pursuit of mates. But men all fall. Never doubt it. And, with due respect to him, "Kid Strin" will someday find a new and poignant meaning to those famous lines of Kipling: "And he made his prayer, even as you and I."

Pity indeed, that scientists have not evolved a definite science of harmonization of the sexes, something akin to astrology but more demonstrable. Because it is true that an hour and many a dollar have been wasted by courtships which never could have brought good results. People are like chemicals: some of them will not mix without a disagreeable explosion—divorce and tragedy. Neither is to blame. Two given keys on a piano might be sounded together until doomsday but never chord. So with humans. Both notes are true to their respective tones, but neither belongs with the other.

If any young man does not enjoy himself by spending his money on a girl, and thinks he absolutely must spend it lavishly, what in the dickens does he want to go with the girl for? Nobody's holding him; why not let her slide? Then hope and wait patiently for his right pal-girl to show up; for when she does, all discussions will end about money spent on entertainment.

Divorce cases, and all the ugly things that come of mistaken matches will never drive from the human soul the belief that somewhere there is love for love's sake.

But it's awfully hard for the average Y. M. these days to find among the dance-crazed jazz babies a really lovable girl. They look good when they're far away, but when a fellow gets close and absorbs some of their ice-cream soda ideas and ideals, and their contorted frowns of life and all its baseness, he feels like lining his den with pictures and going in strong for honest-to-goodness vamps.

Strindberg is wrong about the female sex becoming shrewder in the grim pursuit for a mate. They are falling off in efficiency. In days long ago a girl knew how to make a fellow wild about her just in the way she refused him a kiss. Now, most of them disgust you with the meek purity of the exemplary "lady of the tooth brush."

The moonlight is just as alluring and casts the same half-real spell on the mind—makes a man think he's "when he isn't," and the fool what "was" "is" and forever more shall be, without end. Selah.

"AINT FOUNDERYIT."

WORDS FROM A CRITIC

To the Editor of the Women's Page.
I wonder if the author of the letter signed "The Average Young Man" realized the eruption he was to agitate. I am very much interested in the various letters and maybe, later on, I'll write of my views on the subject. I am going to comment on several of the letters I have read in the past week. Here are a few.

One party states that men like girls who can "clean 'em out," and pull the wool over their eyes. Believe me, done the philosopher the honor of the bird who pays theater, supper and taxi bills is "rather" slick.

Another one "likes chile." So does this party's friends like chile. How do they get that way? Some obliging young lady once entertained an undeserving young man. She did not hit his bank roll very hard, consequently he had some money left. What do you think he did? He went out and broke himself on some other woman. Maybe a blonde.

Some man said that he was with the girls of today until their noses bled. I want to know how long has he got to stick. He further asserts that the men made women what they are today. The men ought to be proud of their job. What?

Women are men's equals. One person thinks it's because they vote. But give them a chance to become organized.

G. O. and Strindberg are men of my heart. I think they are due for another letter soon.

A young lady overheard remarks of a crowd of young men to the effect that a certain girl was a "slow one," a "stuck," a "dead one," etc. I'll wager those fellows were some speed demons. Some of these so-called "fast boys" look like they were shot at and hit. When they start moving you don't know whether they are coming or going.

Still another one has the profound desire to expectorate after a kiss. Some people do give one an appetite. But again this feeling may be mutual.

Now one Christian strolled around a long time looking for another Christian. At last one was found. That must be hard to do in heathen St. Louis.

A young lady thinks if a young man had a pleasing personality and was entertaining in his conversation things would be different. Believe me, a fellow who goes out for a big time has got "some line." Current events.

A suggestion for an evening is a card game. That would be nice. Where is it to be held? Page "Eddie."

"All women make or ruin men." Who doubts that? Five times a week. Ten dollars a time. Figure it out, John D.

Did you read Another Average Young Man's Column, Ill? This is a funny old world at that. I hope that I may have the opportunity to read many more of these letters. I am impartial as to criticism, so go to it if you so wish. A CRITIC.

STRINDBERG MAKES REPLY.
To the Editor of the Women's Page.

I have little time for the "average citizen" of either sex; the average is so low. The trumpeting of proud mediocrity leaves me cold. Civilization's obesity trying to look like the backbone does not make an edifying spectacle. But I confess a feeling of rivalry over your communication signed "Nietzsche." Fancy grim old Friedrich, the most austere thinker since Schopenhauer and the hardest man of our time, spilling sophomoric rhapsodies over the romance of the nickelodeon and the tragedy of the cafeteria!

True, and truly, spake Zarathustra: "Man is for woman a means; the purpose is always the child. . . . Bitter is the sweetest woman. . . . Man, at bottom, is merely evil; woman, however, is mean." Carry a thought among women? Carry a whip! I need not quote at greater length. Your correspondent, having in the past week, and pull the wool over their eyes. Believe me, done the philosopher the honor of

UNCOMMON SENSE

THE OTHER MAN'S LANGUAGE.

By JOHN BLAKE.

If you want to understand other people, learn to make them understand you.

You will get no information out of a stoker by asking him how many thermal units are converted into energy when he scatters a shovelful of coal over the fire.

The time may come when you really need information from a stoker, and from hundreds of other people of callings entirely different from yours.

Learn something about their vocabularies and their method of thought and you will be able to get it.

A great deal of the most valuable information in the world is locked in men's minds. Before you can be really educated you must get it out.

Don't imagine that because a man doubles his negatives or says "who" when he means "whom" that he doesn't know anything that you need to know.

You don't need to make grammatical blunders in order to understand him, but it is important to talk simply, and also to know something about the special words that he uses in his calling.

You can do that by talking to people of all sorts, and, what is more essential, listening to them.

Get their point of view. Get on a conversational basis with them. Don't try to show them how much you know, or how superior you are. Make them understand that you are genuinely interested in what they are doing and how they are doing it.

It is quite possible that the man you look down on may be in many particulars better informed than you are.

A part of your business is to get information. A great deal of it can be got from other people, whether they are wearing diamonds or overalls.

But you have got to speak their language—not French or Italian or Japanese, but the language that is born of their calling and habit of thought.

Theodore Roosevelt could and did talk with all sorts and conditions of men, easily and with mutual understanding. His ability to do this was a very large part of his greatness.

A Loveless Marriage

The Absorbing Story of a Woman's Heart

By Ruby M. Ayres.

TWENTY-FIFTH INSTALLMENT.

SUPPOSE in my panic I did the wrong thing, for the car swerved and ran up the bank that bordered the narrow road—there was a grinding sound and sickening, swaying movement before the whole thing turned over.

I was not flung clear, and though I made desperate efforts to free myself, all the lower part of my body seemed pinned to the ground by some dreadful weight.

I felt numb and there was a dull pain at the back of my head, and presently I felt something trickling down my face. It was blood.

I knew, and when I renewed my efforts to get free I felt a dreadful faintness creeping over me. I tried to cry for help, but no sound so far out in the country there was a poor chance of anyone coming. I knew, and I thought—

"This is how Richard died! This is how my boy's life went out—As I had a grudge against him!"

And then everything seemed to sink away from me and the sunshine faded.

When I next remembered anything I was lying flat on my back on the dining room table where a child I had watched my mother die, and the air was heavy with the sickly scent of chloroform.

The young doctor who had brought Dr. Ingis' practice—the old man had been dead some years—was standing beside me—and another man whose face I did not know, and someone else was holding my hand and crying. I tried to turn my head, and the strange doctor spoke quickly:

"Don't try to move. Lie quite still."

"I looked up at him."

"Am I going to die?" I asked weakly.

"No—no—you've hurt your back—we can't move you for a little while—but you'll be all right."

I was conscious of a thrill of bleak disappointment.

"Oh," I said with quivering lips. "I hoped I was—I hoped it was all over."

"Mother! Mother!"

It was Elsa's voice that broke the silence with that bitter cry. Elsa's tears that fell on my hand—Elsa's kisses, too.

"Don't say that!" she sobbed broken heartedly. "Oh! I do love you!"

I lay on my back for weeks, and Elsa nursed me day and night.

"We've only got each other now," she told me with a breaking voice, and then she broke to me as gently as she could, what I already knew—that her father was dead.

It was an accident to the car that had killed him, but the seizure which had caused the accident.

All his life he had lived too well—gone the pace too fast, and now he was dead.

Perhaps Elsa saw the relief in my eyes, for she turned her face away quickly.

"I loved him," she said faintly. "I pressed the hand that lay in mine."

"He loved you too—better than anyone," I answered.

I wanted to ask Richard, but it was too late. Days before he had died, he had said to me: "I could summon enough courage, and then she answered with a little laugh:

"I sent him away! He wanted to stay, but men are a nuisance when you're in ill, so I sent him away."

DURING all the weeks I lay ill in my bed, Elsa came to me every day, though Elsa—sometimes went to London to meet him;

everyone is scrambling for the honor. To the men (poor fellows) I would say, I feel sorry for you—not because the girls keep you broke, but because you haven't got sense enough to drop them when you find they're bleeding you.

As for the girls (poor dears) I'll say, I am sorry for you, too—arent the men just too terrible?

To both I would suggest the title of a once popular song, "For Every Boy Who's on the Level, There's a Girl Who's on the Square." And vice versa.

I've read the various letters to this page with much interest (or must I say amusement?) and the only comment I wish to make is that I think God there are a few red-blooded chaps like the "Average Young Man" from Collinsville, Ill., and some real girls like him. I would like to meet them both. Of course, a few of our amiable cynics will remind us that he is in love. Good, then here's hoping more of us fall in love!

FAIR-PLAIE.

"GOOD FELLOW"
To the Editor of the Women's Page.

Show me the average girl that is considered at least fair looking and neat that doesn't demand a good time by spending money lavishly and riding in automobiles if a fellow wants to accompany her. If you don't do it they will leave you out of the race; and who wants to go with an old maid or something as ugly as sin.

Some girls write they don't want fellows to kiss them; they must either hate themselves or never get any fellows. I am.

A GOOD FELLOW.

but I never questioned her about him and she never volunteered any information.

Then—in July, the doctors said I might go away. I could walk a little then, and every day I felt myself growing stronger.

"Where will you go, Mummie, darling?" Elsa asked me.

She had been such a dear little daughter to me since my accident, and I had grown to depend on her so much that my greatest dread now was the thought that I should so soon have to lose her.

I tried only to think of Richard as her husband—I tried only to wish for her happiness.

"There's a little village in Devonshire," I began, when she interrupted:

"I know—Mr. Tempest told me about it—weren't you there once when he was?"

So he had told her that. For a moment I shut my eyes to the pain of the memory—then I smiled. "Yes—it's such a dear little place. I am sure I shall get quite well there."

Elsa arranged it all. She took rooms in the same cottage where I had stayed before, and she went down a day earlier than I did to see that everything was there for my comfort.

It was 6 o'clock on a glorious July evening when I drove up to the little cottage by the sea—the front door stood open, and the door of my sitting room, and I could see that there were many flowers in the room.

"It looks almost like a wedding," I thought, as I went into the room.

"Elsa," I called. "Elsa."

But there was no answer, and I was turning away in surprise when I saw a letter lying on the table—addressed in Elsa's writing with the one word Mother.

I took it up with vague apprehension. Why should she write to me? Why was she not here?

"This was the letter:

"Mother Darling:

"Forgive me, but I had to do it this way, or I knew you would never have consented. I broke off my engagement to Mr. Tempest the night after your accident. When I brought you home we both thought you were dead—I have never seen anyone so broken-hearted as he was—and it was then that he told me the truth. I've been a silly little idiot."

And so you'll forgive me. When you get this, darling, I shall be Tony Thorold's wife—he loves me and he's a dear! I'm very fond of him, and we're going to be quite happy."

I know. And so are you! I couldn't have left you like this, only I know you will be looked after even better than I could have done it. Tony and I are going abroad for a month. I shall write often, and never forget, Mummie darling, that I love you—Elsa."

I read the letter through twice before I seemed able to grasp its meaning, and then I lay back, afterwards with it in my lap, afraid to recognize that at last the gates of happiness had been unlocked for me—"I know you will be looked after even better than I could have done it."

Those words from her letter leaped to my mind as I heard the click of the gate, and a step on the garden path outside—then a step in the hall.

I could not raise my eyes—but my heart seemed to stop beating. Keeping the lines of the neck perfectly straight, having the line of the neck cut deeply V, and the belt a mere string. The cape, with many points and drooping lines, covering many curves that might have been too full, helped to convey the impression of slenderness.

As to the stockings, she explained, "the hose should always partake of the texture of the gown."

"Neutral colors are most practical for the woman who cannot have many changes of costume. A neutral gown and made to seem different each day as a diaphanous use of ornaments such as beads. Pendants hung on ribbons, new girdles or with a change of collars and cuffs."

"That most mirrors are not full length is responsible for the regrettable shirt waist and skirt fashion. A full length mirror, if one is surveying no more than one's back hair, is necessary for the correct tout ensemble."

A DAILY DOUBLE PAGE CREATING ILLIONS

Line, Color and Texture of Garments Important Factor, Says Woman Lecturer.

By MARGUERITE MARTYN.

MISS EVELYN D. HANSON, a lecturer on dress, who told fact women how they might look thin without going through ordeals of dieting and thin ones how they may assume the semblance of curves without having to eat the things they don't like, became most popular with audiences of St. Louis women last week. Creating an illusion of perfect proportions is largely a matter of line, color and texture of one's garments, she said. Likewise the illusion of a good complexion is largely due to taking care what colors are placed next to the face.

The talks, given at the Odeon in connection with Better Homes Week, were so full of pointed, witty and picturesque paragraphs that your sketch artist was tempted to reduce some of these to pictures and phrases.

Other paragraphs, not so susceptible to illustration, were as readily reduced to a few lines each in one's note book, as follows:

"Middle-aged women should wear soft, rich, luscious materials of which the markets are so full these days. If too thin, avoid materials with a smooth texture; if too fat, don't wear fuzzy or rough materials."

The lecturer herself confessed to a weight of 131 pounds. She wore a one-piece gown of brown, raised with cape to match, with cotton or lisle stockings, thus seeming to break the rule she had just laid down as to who should wear smooth materials. She proceeded to show how all rules fall under extenuating circumstances. When purchasing this costume for its practical qualities for traveling, she had neutralized the fault of rough texture by keeping the lines of the neck perfectly straight, having the line of the neck cut deeply V, and the belt a mere string. The cape, with many points and drooping lines, covering many curves that might have been too full, helped to convey the impression of slenderness.

ILLIONS IN DRESS

THE WOMAN OF VENGEANCE

By Sophie Irene Loeb

(Copyright, 1922.)

THEY were separated—the two who had plighted their troth in the very early days. And had knelt at Hymen's altar. When the blush of youth was still on their cheeks. And when they had drunk but little from the cup of life. A mistake, a grave mistake, was theirs. And soon they learned it and went their various ways. And saw no more each of the other. Yet freedom was not theirs. For out of her wounded pride came a bitterness. An unyielding defiance. Which decreed that he should suffer and bear the burden of the mistake that was theirs. He should be free to find love of his life. There she stood crying, "Vengeance is mine!" And it came to pass that he met his mate—the real woman, who inspired him to noble acts and fine achievement. Who worked side by side with him in the march of human events. Yet they could not be as one. Because of this self-appointed monitor of their three lives. Who mocked their misery. All—all he gave to this woman. The stumbling block of his life. Of material things. Yet she was unsatisfied, unchanging, pitiless. Then came another, a man. Into the life of this woman of vengeance. Of uncompromising will. One who created a new spark, a new joy in her being. But somewhere in his deep reflections he reasoned. That there was a heart that harbored hate and unforgiveness. One who assumed to settle the hopes and lives of others to satisfy herself. And he feared for his own happiness with such a one. And passed her by. Then she knew the pain of parting. And the hunger for the unforbidden love. Grief and remorse came, but too late. She died unlovely and unloved. Hit by the boomerang that she made herself. So it is with all who stand in the way of happiness to satisfy only self.

HOMINY WITH CHEESE

ARRANGE alternate layers of cooked grits with sharp cheese, grated. After the baking dish is filled, a cup of white or tomato sauce should be poured over the combination, and the whole covered with buttered crumbs and baked half an hour. Minced cooked beef or lamb, slices of pork or veal, fish pickled from the bones, or canned fish; onions, celery or vegetable mixtures may be made into attractive dishes when scalloped with the grits.

SPICE LAYER CAKE

ONE large tablespoon butter, creamed with one cup of sugar, two eggs, white and yolks beaten together and added to the above; one and one-quarter cups of flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one level teaspoon cloves, one level teaspoon cinnamon, one level teaspoon nutmeg, one-half cup of milk, one teaspoon vanilla.

Fashion News Notes

PARIS.—Encouraged by the vogue of the sports knickerbocker, one of the French designers is making another attempt to introduce the trouser-skirt. This garment is, of course, none other than the Turkish trouser and it is only to be expected that European women will "take to the trousers" now that Turkish women have taken to skirts. In Paris the trousers are of chiffon and charmeuse, and worn as the lower section of an evening frock.

LONDON.—With the black patent leather shoes so fashionable just now, a new sort of stocking is worn. The color in each case is pale—so faint, indeed as to be almost invisible, and the effect at first and even second glance is rather startling. The favorite tints are pearl, chamois and rose.

CHICAGO.—One of the large shops has charming negligees on display. Chinese blue panels of broadened Chinese silk need only the ring-like sleeves of black crepe de chine to bring their splendor to perfection. Egyptian characters in blue and black form magnificent borders for negligees for deep coral silk.

NEW YORK.—A simple and beautiful afternoon costume for the young girl is recommended by a Fifth avenue silk shop. It is made of sand Canton crepe in wide, flat pleats from neck to hem, and girdled at the normal waist line by a narrow twist of sand silk cord. The touch of distinction is added by a sleeveless jacket of the Bokhara printed crepe which repeats the mellow and intricate pattern of an Oriental rug.

Apple Sauce With Horseradish

PARE, core and cut in quarters five cooking apples. Cook until soft, with as little water as possible; the apples should be quite dry when done. Rub through a sieve and to the pulp add one-half cup of granulated sugar and one-third cup of fresh-grated horseradish; then fold in an equal measure of whipped cream. Serve at once with roast goose, duck, roast fresh ham or loin of pork.

What you really observe is the person's hands. The one that held up the chosen fruit will be much whiter than the other, as the blood left the hand while it was held up.

The Arrival of Jenny Wren

By Thornton W. Burgess

When you're satisfied don't show it; Do not let your husband know it.

Jenny Wren. "I don't see what difference that makes," protested Mr. Wren. "Tut, tut, tut! Of course you don't. I needn't have expected you would," sputtered Jenny. "I don't suppose it makes any difference to you what way a house faces, but it does to me. I want my house facing south and now I can't have it. If you hadn't stopped so often to sing on the way up here, we might have been in time to have got that house." Jenny jerked her tail as if somehow that had had something to do with every word she said. Mr. Wren said nothing. Instead he flew over to the next tree and sang until he shook all over. He knew Jenny Wren. He knew that it really didn't make the least bit of difference to Jenny which way her house faced. He knew that she just had to find fault with something and this was the only thing she could think of. Jenny flew over to the little house that was exactly like Tommy Tit's. A dozen times she popped in and out of the little round doorway. It was just the right size. There wasn't any room to spare and Jenny was glad of this. After she had tried it until she was satisfied she flew over for a closer look at Tommy Tit's doorway. It was just a wee bit larger, but still not large enough for Bully the English Sparrow to get in. Jenny knew then that the house with the smallest doorway had been put up especially for her. Even Tommy Tit would have found it hard work to squeeze through that doorway. This pleased Jenny, but she didn't tell Mr. Wren. She still continued to fuss because they hadn't arrived sooner, and to blame him for it. That was just Jenny's way. She wouldn't be happy if she couldn't do a certain amount of scolding, and when she cannot find something really worth scolding about, she pretends to find something. You know some folks are that way.

"To Do My Share"

"The war taught me to save. I was just out of high school when it started, and had been at work only a few months. Saving money had never entered my head.

"When they started to sell Liberty Bonds, I wanted to do my share, but had to buy a bond on the installment plan, $2 a week. I got used to it. It became a habit. I bought bonds that way all through the war, and afterward continued the $2-a-week deposits in a savings account. I know now that I have $500 I wouldn't have if it had not been for the war."

THE MOST CULTURED OF FISH.

WHEN "Bob" Davis was editor of Munsey's Magazine he went over to England to round up material from some of the English writers. He stopped in London at the Hotel Cecil. Glancing over the menu one morning at breakfast, he said to the waiter: "What is a whiting?" "A whiting, sir," said the waiter, "is a fish, sir." "I know that," said Davis, "but what kind of a fish? How does it taste?" The waiter pondered the matter for a moment. "I'll tell you, sir," he said. "A whiting is like a 'addock, sir—only more refined."

MORE TRUTH THAN POETRY

By James J. Montague.

NO CHANCE FOR THE READER.
I have read a thousand tales, I guess,
By millionaires and others
Who always say that their success
Was due to their gray-haired mothers.
Yet when these mothers fondly said,
"Good-by; be noble, sonny,"
They gave each boy a loaf of bread
But never any money.

The boys were noble, so they say;
Plain living kept them healthy.
They worked long hours for little pay
And soon grew very wealthy.
They all allow that rather soon
They tired of vulgar riches
And long to have their statues hewn
For fame's eternal riches.

They're all alike, these stories are;
They never slept nor rested,
But hitched their wagons to a star,
As Emerson suggested.
Poor boys they were, but bound to win;
They starved, wore mean apparel;
And soon the wealth came pouring in
By barrel after barrel.

These stories have become my bane—
I read them till I'm jaded,
And always hoping I may gain Success and wealth like they did.
I'll read them till I'm old and gray,
Although I know, do not rot it!
That not a one will ever say
A word of how he got it!
